Idleness Indolence And Leisure In English Literature:

Idleness, Indolence and Leisure in English Literature M. Fludernik, M. Nandi, 2014-11-11 Idleness Indolence and Leisure in English Literature is the first study to provide transhistorical perspectives and cutting edge critical analyses of debates concerning idleness in English literature The topicality of the subject is emphasized by two pieces of sociological analysis Idleness and Aesthetic Consciousness, 1815-1900 Richard Adelman, 2018-08-02 Charting the failure of the Romantic critique of political economy Richard Adelman explores the changing significances and the developing concepts of idleness and aesthetic consciousness during the nineteenth century Through careful analysis of some of the period's most influential thinkers including John Stuart Mill George Eliot John Ruskin and Karl Marx Adelman weaves together evolving ideas across a range of intellectual discourses political economy meditative poetry the ideology of the gospel of work cultural theory the Gothic and psychoanalysis In doing so he reconstructs debates over passivity and repose and demonstrates their centrality to the cultural politics of the age Arguing that hardened conceptions of aesthetic consciousness come into being at moments of civic unrest concerning political representation and that the fin de siècle witnesses the demonization of the once revolutionary category of aesthetic consciousness the book demonstrates that late eighteenth century positivity around human spirituality is comprehensively dismantled by the beginning of the twentieth century Sleep and its spaces in Middle English literature Megan G. Leitch, 2021-07-06 Middle English literature is intimately concerned with sleep and the spaces in which it takes place In the medieval English imagination sleep is an embodied and culturally determined act It is both performed and interpreted by characters and contemporaries subject to a particular habitus and understood through particular hermeneutic lenses While illuminating the intersecting medical and moral discourses by which it is shaped sleep also sheds light on subjects in favour of which it has hitherto been overlooked what sleep can enable dreams and dream poetry or what it can stand in for or supersede desire and sex This book argues that sleep mediates thematic concerns and questions in ways that have ethical affective and oneiric implications At the same time it offers important contributions to understanding different Middle English genres romance dream vision drama and fabliau Performing Disability in Early Modern English Drama Leslie C. Dunn, 2021-01-04 Performing Disability in Early Modern English Drama investigates the cultural work done by early modern theatrical performances of disability Proffering an expansive view of early modern disability in performance the contributors suggest methodologies for finding and interpreting it in unexpected contexts The volume also includes essays on disabled actors whose performances are changing the meanings of disability in Shakespeare for present day audiences By combining these two areas of scholarship this text makes a unique intervention in early modern studies and disability studies alike Ultimately the volume generates a conversation that locates and theorizes the staging of particular disabilities within their historical and literary contexts while considering continuity and change in the performance of disability between the early modern period and our own Representing Poverty in the Anglophone

Postcolonial World Verena Jain-Warden, Barbara Schmidt-Haberkamp, 2021-06-07 Originally a concern primarily of social studies and economics poverty has emerged as a significant thematic focus and analytical tool in literary and cultural studies in the last two decades The new poverty studies are dedicated to analyzing representations of poverty and the poor in literature and the visual arts in the news media and in social practices They aim at exploring the frameworks of representation that impact the affective and ethical responses of audiences to disenfranchised groups such as the poor The contributions to this volume focus on representations of poverty in the Anglophone postcolonial world exploring for example contemporary discourses on poverty in the UK filmic representations of Nairobi slums or the agency of the poor in literature from India Medicine and Mobility in Nineteenth-Century British Literature, History, and Culture Sandra

Dinter, Sarah Schäfer-Althaus, 2023-03-15 Medicine and Mobility in Nineteenth Century British Literature History and Culture analyses the cultural and literary histories of medicine and mobility as entangled processes whose discourses and practices constituted influenced and transformed each other Presenting case studies of novels poetry travel narratives diaries ship magazines skin care manuals asylum records press reports and various other sources its chapters identify and discuss diverse literary historical and cultural texts contexts and modes in which medicine and mobility intersected in nineteenth century Britain its empire and beyond whereby they illustrate how the paradigms of mobility studies and the medical humanities can complement each other The Routledge Companion to Joseph Conrad Debra Romanick

Baldwin, 2024-07-15 The Routledge Companion to Joseph Conrad attests to the global significance and enduring importance of Conrad's works reception and legacy This volume brings together an international roster of scholars who consider his works in relation to biography narrative politics women's studies comparative literature and other forms of art They offer approaches as diverse as re-examining Conrad's sea voyages using newly available digital materials analyzing his archipelagic narrative techniques applying Chinese philosophy to Lord Jim interrogating gendered epistemology in the neglected story The Tale considering Conrad alongside W E B Du Bois Graham Greene Virginia Woolf or Orhan Pamuk or alongside sound gesture opera graphic novels or contemporary events An invaluable resource for students and scholars of Conrad and twentieth century literature this groundbreaking collection shows how Conrad's works their artistry vision and ideas continue to challenge perplex and delight The Experience of Idling in Victorian Travel Texts, 1850-1901

Heidi Liedke, 2018-08-02 This book brings together theories of spatiality and mobility with a study of travel writing in the Victorian period to suggest that idleness is an important but neglected condition of subjectivity in that era Contrary to familiar stereotypes of the Victorians as characterized by speed work and mechanized travel this book asserts a counter narrative in which certain writers embraced idleness in travel as a radical means to re-subjectification and the assertion of a late Romantic sensibility Attentive to the historical and literary continuities between Romantic and Victorian the book reconstructs the Victorian discourse on idleness It draws on an interdisciplinary range of theorists and brings together a fresh selection of accounts viewed through the lens of cultural studies as well as accounts of publication history and author biography Travel texts from different genres by writers such as Anna Mary Howitt Jerome K Jerome and George Gissing are brought together as representing the different facets of the spectrum of idleness in the Victorian context The Routledge Companion to Literary Urban Studies Lieven Ameen, 2022-08-10 Over the past decades the growing interest in the study of literature of the city has led to the development of literary urban studies as a discipline in its own right The Routledge Companion to Literary Urban Studies provides a methodical overview of the fundamentals of this developing discipline and a detailed outline of new directions in the field It consists of 33 newly commissioned chapters that provide an outline of contemporary literary urban studies The Companion covers all of the main theoretical approaches as well as key literary genres with case studies covering a range of different geographical cultural and historical settings The final chapters provide a window into new debates in the field The three focal issues are key concepts and genres of literary urban studies a reassessment and critique of classical urban studies theories and the canon of literary capitals and methods for the analysis of cities in literature The Routledge Companion to Literary Urban Studies provides the reader with practical insights into the methods and approaches that can be applied to the city in literature and serves as an important reference work for upper level students and researchers working on city literature Chapter 15 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> Jean-Jacques Rousseau and British Romanticism Russell Goulbourne, David Higgins, 2017-05-18 Bringing together leading scholars from the USA UK and Europe this is the first substantial study of the seminal influence of Jean Jacques Rousseau on British Romanticism Reconsidering Rousseau's connection to canonical Romantic authors such as Wordsworth Byron and Percy Bysshe Shelley Jean Jacques Rousseau and British Romanticism also explores his impact on a wide range of literature including anti Jacobin fiction educational works familiar essays nature writing and political discourse Convincingly demonstrating that the relationship between Rousseau's thought and British Romanticism goes beyond mere reception or influence to encompass complex forms of connection transmission and appropriation Jean Jacques Rousseau and British Romanticism is a vital new contribution to scholarly understanding of British Romantic literature and its transnational contexts Manners, Norms and Transgressions in the History of English Andreas H. Jucker, Irma Taavitsainen, 2020-08-15 This volume traces the multifaceted concept of manners in the history of English from the late medieval through the early and late modern periods right up to the present day It focuses in particular on transgressions of manners and norms of behaviour as an analytical tool to shed light on the discourse of polite conduct and styles of writing The papers collected in this volume adopt both literary and linguistic perspectives The fictional sources range from medieval romances and Shakespearean plays to eighteenth century drama Lewis Carroll's Alice books and present day television comedy drama The non fictional data includes conduct books medical debates and petitions written by lower class women in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries The contributions focus in particular on the following questions What are the social and political ideologies behind rules of etiquette and norms of interaction and what can we learn from blunders and other transgressions

The Travel Writings of Marguerite Blessington Aneta Lipska, 2017-06-01 This book derives from the conviction that Marguerite Blessington 1788 1849 merits scholarly attention as a travel writer and thus offers the first detailed analysis of Blessington's four travel books A Tour in The Isle of Wight in the Autumn of 1820 1822 Journal of a Tour through the Netherlands to Paris in 1821 1822 The Idler in Italy 1839 and The Idler in France 1841 It argues that travelling and travel writing provided Blessington with endless opportunities to reshape her public personae demonstrating that her predilection for self-fashioning was related to the various tendencies in tourism and literature as well as the changing aesthetic and social trends in the first half of the nineteenth century

Refiguring Speech Amy R. Wong, 2023-07-18 In this book Amy R Wong unravels the colonial and racial logic behind seemingly innocuous assumptions about speech that our words belong to us and that self-possession is a virtue Through readings of late Victorian fictions of empire Wong revisits the scene of speech's ideological foreclosures as articulated in postcolonial theory Engaging Afro-Caribbean thinkers like Édouard Glissant and Sylvia Wynter Refiguring Speech reroutes attention away from speech and toward an anticolonial poetics of talk which emphasizes communal ownership and embeddedness within the social world and material environment Analyzing novels by Robert Louis Stevenson Bram Stoker George Meredith Joseph Conrad and Ford Madox Ford Wong refashions the aesthetics of disordered speech such as parroting eavesdropping profuse inarticulacy and dysfluency into alternate forms of communication that stand on their own as talk Wong demonstrates how late nineteenth-century Britain's twin crises of territorialization of empire and of new media spurred narrative interests in capturing the sense that speech's tethering to particular persons was no longer tenable In doing so Wong connects this period to US empire by constructing a genealogy of Anglo-American speech's colonialist and racialized terms of proprietorship Refiguring Speech offers students and scholars of Victorian literature and postcolonial studies a powerful conceptualization of talk as an insurgent form of communication

The English Modernist Novel as Political Theology Charles Andrews, 2024-01-11 A 2024 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE novels by Virginia Woolf D H Lawrence Evelyn Waugh and Sylvia Townsend Warner as political theology works that imagine a resistance to the fusion of Christianity and patriotism which fuelled and supported the First World War this book shows how we can gain valuable insights from their works for anti-militarist anti-statist and anti-nationalist efforts today While none of the four novelists in this study were committed Christians during the 1920s Andrews explores how their fiction written in the wake of the First World War operates theologically when it challenges English civil religion the rituals of the nation that elevate the state to a form of divinity Bringing these novels into a dialogue with recent political theologies by theorists and theologians including Giorgio Agamben William Cavanaugh Simon Critchley Michel Foucault Stanley Hauerwas and Jürgen Moltmann this book shows the myriad ways that we can learn from the authors' theopolitical

imaginations Andrews demonstrates the many ways that these novelists issue a challenge to the problems with civil religion and the sacralized nation state and in so doing offer alternative visions to coordinate our inner lives with our public and collective actions

Father Chaucer Samantha Katz Seal, 2019-09-26 The monograph series Oxford Studies in Medieval Literature and Culture showcases the plurilingual and multicultural quality of medieval literature and actively seeks to promote research that not only focuses on the array of subjects medievalists now pursue in literature theology and philosophy in social political jurisprudential and intellectual history the history of art and the history of science but also that combines these subjects productively It offers innovative studies on topics that may include but are not limited to manuscript and book history languages and literatures of the global Middle Ages race and the post colonial the digital humanities media and performance music medicine the history of affect and the emotions the literature and practices of devotion the theory and history of gender and sexuality ecocriticism and the environment theories of aesthetics medievalism Geoffrey Chaucer has long been lauded as the Father of English Poetry For later authors and scholars the late medieval poet has served as a symbol of male authority and literary paternity upon whom successive centuries of the English canon may comfortably rest Yet for Chaucer himself the idea of paternity whether poetic or biological was far from stable or reassuring Reading Chaucer's masterpiece The Canterbury Tales alongside its theological poetic and scientific contemporaries this book argues that Chaucer was fascinated by the promise offered by metaphors of reproduction paternity and lineage However in the wake of the Black Death Hundred Years War and other demographic crises Chaucer could not help but perceive paternal authority as a transitory uncertain ambition one capable of devastating male authority as surely as it could enshrine it Likewise medieval Christian doctrine taught that the earth was but a temporary sorrowful abode for corrupt mortal men who committed a form of blasphemy by longing for earthly memorializations of their lives Chaucer knew that God had set sharp limits upon man's ability to create with certainty and to determine his own posterity Still what could be more human than the longing to wrest some small authority from one's own flesh This book argues that within The Canterbury Tales Chaucer consistently confronted the impossibility of men's desire to see their offspring both biological and poetic last beyond their own deaths to claim the authority simultaneously promised and denied by the very act of creation

Russomania Rebecca Beasley, 2020-03-31 Russomania Russian Culture and the Creation of British Modernism provides a new account of modernist literature's emergence in Britain British writers played a central role in the dissemination of Russian literature and culture during the early twentieth century and their writing was transformed by the encounter This study restores the thick history of that moment by analyzing networks of dissemination and reception to recover the role of neglected as well as canonical figures and institutions as well as individuals The dominant account of British modernism privileges a Francophile genealogy but the turn of the century debate about the future of British writing was a triangular debate a debate not only between French and English models but between French English and Russian models Francophile modernists associated Russian literature especially the Tolstoyan novel with an uncritical immersion in life at the expense of a mastery of style and while individual works might be admired Russian literature as a whole was represented as a dangerous model for British writing This supposed danger was closely bound up with the politics of the period and this book investigates how Russian culture was deployed in the close relationships between writers editors and politicians who made up the early twentieth century intellectual class the British intelligentsia Russomania argues that the most significant impact of Russian culture is not to be found in stylistic borrowings between canonical authors but in the shaping of the major intellectual questions of the period the relation between language and action writer and audience and the work of art and lived experience The resulting account brings an occluded genealogy of early modernism to the fore with a different arrangement of protagonists different critical values and stronger lines of connection to the realist experiments of the Victorian past and the anti formalism and revived romanticism of the 1930s and 1940s future

Unhomely Life Xiaobo Su, 2024-04-29 How do China's mobile individuals create a sense of home in a rapidly changing world Unhomely life different from houselessness refers to a fluctuating condition between losing home feelings and the search for home a prevalent condition in post Mao China The faster that Chinese society modernizes the less individuals feel at home and the more they yearn for a sense of home This is the central paradox that Xiaobo Su explores how mobile individuals lifestyle migrants and retreat tourists from China's big cities displaced natives and rural migrants in peripheral China handle the loss of home and try to experience a homely way of life In Unhomely Life Xiaobo Su examines the subjective experiences of mobile individuals to better understand why they experience the loss of home feelings and how they search for home Integrating extensive empirical data and a robust theoretical framework the author presents a journey based critical analysis of home under constant making un making and re making in post Mao China Su argues that the making of home is not a solely economic or rational calculation for maximum return but rather a synthesis of resistance and compromise under the disappointing conditions of modernity Offering rich insights into the continuity and disruption of China's great transformation Unhomely Life Develops an original theory of unhomely life that incorporates contemporary research and traditional Chinese ideas of home Explores the process of homemaking and its implications for understanding the costs of high speed economic growth in China Analyzes mobile individuals across different genders ages ethnicities social classes and economic backgrounds to address the balance between meaning and money in everyday life Containing in depth and sophisticated empirical data collected from 2002 to 2020 Unhomely Life Modernity Mobilities and the Making of Home in China is an invaluable resource for advanced undergraduates graduate students lecturers and academic researchers in cultural studies migration tourism China studies cultural anthropology sociology and social and cultural geography

How to Do Things with Narrative Jan Alber, Greta Olson, 2017-11-20 This volume combines narratological analyses with an investigation of the ideological ramifications of the use of narrative strategies The collected essays do not posit any intrinsic or stable connection between narrative techniques and world views Rather they demonstrate that world views are inevitably expressed through highly specific formal strategies This insight leads the contributors to investigate why and how particular narrative techniques are employed and under what conditions Contemporary Indian English Literature Cecile Sandten,Indrani Karmakar,Oliver von Knebel

Doeberitz,2024-02-12 Contemporary Indian English Literature focuses on the recent history of Indian literature in English since the publication of Salman Rushdie s novel Midnight s Children 1981 a watershed moment for Indian writing in English in the global literary landscape The chapters in this volume consider a wide range of poets novelists short fiction writers and dramatists who have notably contributed to the proliferation of Indian literature in English from the late 20th century to the present The volume provides an introduction to current developments in Indian English literature and explains general ideas as well as the specific features and styles of selected writers from this wide spectrum It addresses students working in this field at university level and includes thorough reading lists and study questions to encourage students to read reflect on and write about Indian English literature critically Narrative Factuality Monika Fludernik,Marie-Laure Ryan,2019-12-16 The study of narrative the object of the rapidly growing discipline of narratology has been traditionally concerned with the fictional narratives of literature such as novels or short stories But narrative is a transdisciplinary and transmedial concept whose manifestations encompass both the fictional and the factual In this volume which provides a companion piece to Tobias Klauk and Tilmann K ppe s Fiktionalit t Ein interdisziplin res Handbuch the use of narrative to convey true and reliable information is systematically explored across media cultures and disciplines as well as in its narratological stylistic philosophical and rhetorical dimensions At a time when the notion of truth has come under attack it is imperative to reaffirm the commitment to facts of certain types of narrative and to examine critically the foundations of this commitment But because it takes a background for a figure to emerge clearly this book will also explore nonfactual types of narratives thereby providing insights into the nature of narrative fiction that could not be reached from the narrowly literary perspective of early narratology
