Institute Of Peace Iraq Report:

United States Institute of Peace Special Report , The Coalition Provisional Authority's Experience with Economic Reconstruction in Iraq Anne Ellen Henderson,2005 Jordan and Iraq Scott Lasensky,2006 Media Practice in Iraq

A. Al-Rawi,2012-08-07 A historical survey of the Iraqi media from its beginning up to the present day focusing on the post 2003 media scene and the political and societal divisions that occurred in Iraq after US led occupation Investigates the nature of the media outlets and offers an analysis of the way Iraqi satellite channels covered the 2010 general elections

Reconstructing Iraq's Budgetary Institutions James D. Savage,2013 Consistent with the literature on state building failed states peacekeeping and foreign assistance this book argues that budgeting is a core state activity necessary for the operation of a functional government Employing a historical institutionalist approach this book first explores the Ottoman British and Ba athist origins of Iraq s budgetary institutions The book next examines American pre war planning the Coalition Provisional Authority s rule making and budgeting following the invasion of Iraq in 2003 and the mixed success of the Coalition s capacity building programs initiated throughout the occupation This book sheds light on the problem of outsiders building states contributes to a more comprehensive evaluation of the Coalition in Iraq addresses the question of why Iraqis took ownership of some Coalition generated institutions and helps explain the nature of institutional change Iraq and the Gulf States Jon B. Alterman,2007 Scenarios for the Insurgency in Iraq Alan Schwartz,2006 Touching on a top U S foreign policy priority this Special Report identifies several possible outcomes of the insurgency in Iraq and recommends to U S policymakers the best strategies to deal with the current situation and the unfolding futures Iraq Election Scenarios

Alan Schwartz,2008-09 Following the elections in Iraq the elected National Assembly and new interim government began grappling with Iraq s substantial post election challenge governing a nation In Aug 2004 the U S Institute of Peace USIP launched a novel project in which it sought to develop multiple scenarios for the Iraq elections This paper describes that project and illustrates how scenario planning can help policymakers grapple with great uncertainty and complex political environments It was prepared by Alan Schwartz of PolicyFutures LLC who facilitated the scenarios exercise Illustrations Coalition Provisional Authority's Experience with Public Security in Iraq Robert M. Perito,2008-10 Iraq's

New Political Map Phebe Marr,2022 Turkey and Iraq Henri J. Barkey,2005 Throughout the 1990s Turkey was the anchor in the containment of Saddam Hussein s Iraq by the United States The unpredictable set of events unleashed by Operation Iraqi Freedom has unnerved both Turkish decision makers and the public alike The U S led coalition s operation in Iraq has also upended Turkey s fundamental interests in Iraq which are fourfold 1 Prevent the division of Iraq along sectarian or ethnic lines that would give rise to an independent or confederal Kurdish state with the oil rich city of Kirkuk as its capital thus supporting aspirations for a similar entity in Turkey s own extensive Kurdish population 2 Protect the Turkish speaking Turkmen minority which resides primarily in northern Iraq 3 Eliminate the Kurdistan Workers Party the Turkish Kurdish insurgent movement which has sought refuge in the northeast of Iraq following its defeat in 1999 4 Prevent the emergence of a potentially hostile nondemocratic fundamentalist Iraqi state Summary The Iraqi Federation Farah Shakir, 2017-02-17 Political instability has characterised the modern history of Iraq which has proven itself as a complex state to govern However the creation of a federal system in 2005 offers the potential for change and a deviation from a past characterised by authoritarian government brutality and war The Iraqi Federation explores why and how Iraq became a federal state and analyses how the process of formation impacts on the operation of the Iraqi federal system It argues that the different approaches taken by various federal theorists in the past particularly William H Riker's bargain theory are insufficient to explain the formation of the Iraqi federation completely The process of the establishment of a federal Iraq must be understood in the context of its unique history and cultural specificity as well as in the context of the other new federal models that have appeared since the end of the Cold War including Belgium the Russian Federation Ethiopia Bosnia and Herzegovina and Nigeria Drawing on interviews with contemporary political players in Iraq this book helps to deepen our understanding of how one of the newest federal states operates in a practical sense By linking the new federal models to the classic federal theory it also provides a unique contribution to theories on federal state formation It will therefore be of great interest to students and scholars of Middle East Politics as well as those studying Federalism Iraq's Constitutional Process II Jonathan Morrow, 2011-06 Starting in Aug 2004 the U S Inst of Peace began providing in country support on constitution making to Iraqi political governmental and civil society actors The goal of this program is to maximize the transparency and inclusiveness of Iraq's constitutional process enabling Iraqi citizens to engage directly with the drafters and ensuring domestic ownership of the constitution Morrow traveled frequently to Iraq Through July and August 2005 he worked in Baghdad with Iraqi participants and with other international experts in the constitutional negotiations He describes and analyzes the process of negotiating and drafting Iraq's constitution and points to lessons for Iraq and for future constitutional processes Map A print on demand report Imagining the Nation: Nationalism, Sectarianism and Socio-Political Conflict in Iraq Harith Al Qarawee, 2012-04-05 When the statue of Saddam Hussein was pulled down in Baghdad's Firdous square Iraq was entering a new phase of uncertainty This is a country whose history has been shaped by foreign occupations authoritarianism wars and violence Its identity was always a matter of controversy The incompatibility between Iraq as a territorial entity and the various cultural identities of its population made it more difficult for Iraqis to imagine their Nation This Identity Problem has been made worse by a political power which has always based itself on the hegemony politics of exclusion Through a long journey in the historical processes and socio political conflicts the author tells the story of a country devastated by its legacy seeking to reconcile with itself and re imagine its nationhood Saudi Arabia and Iraq Joseph McMillan, 2006 The Transformation of Occupied Territory in International Law Andrea Carcano, 2015-09-29 This volume discusses the practice of transformative military occupation from the perspective of public international law through the prism of the occupation of Iraq and other cases of historical significance It seeks to assess how international law should respond to measures undertaken in the pursuit of a given transformative project whether or not supported by the Security Council A monographic study tackling the bulk of the international law issues that emerge during and as a result of a transformative occupation based on a comprehensive analysis of historical cases applicable norms and relevant facts With this thorough and thought provoking study Andrea Carcano has put us all in his debt From the foreword by Georges Abi Saab Emeritus Professor Graduate Institute of International Studies and Development

Securing, Stabilizing, and Rebuilding Iraq: Progress Report Gene L. Dodaro, 2009-02 Since 2001 Congress has appropriated about 640 billion for the global war on terrorism the majority of this for operations in Iraq In Jan 2007 the Pres announced The New Way Forward to stem violence in Iraq and enable the Iraqi gov t to foster national reconciliation This new strategy established goals and objectives to achieve over 12 to 18 months or by July 2008 This report discusses progress in meeting key goals in The New Way Forward 1 improve security conditions 2 develop capable Iraqi security forces and help the Iraqi gov t 3 enact key legislation 4 spend capital budgets and 5 provide essential services Also discusses U S strategies for Iraq Includes recommendations Charts and tables

The Comptroller General's Progress Report on Iraq United States. Congress. House. Committee on Armed Services, 2009

Post-conflict Administrations in International Law Eric de Brabandere, 2009-04-24 The concept of international administrations of territory in which comprehensive administrative powers are exercised by on behalf of or with the agreement of the United Nations has recently re emerged in the context of reconstructing parts of states after conflict Although in Kosovo and East Timor the UN was endowed with wide ranging executive and legislative powers in the subsequent operations in Afghanistan it was decided to principally rely on local capacity with minimal international participation and in Iraq administrative power was exercised by the occupying powers The objectives are however very similar This work first delineates the origins of the granting of administrative functions to international actors and analyses the context in which it has resurfaced namely post conflict peace building or reconstruction Secondly the book methodically establishes the legal framework applicable to post conflict administrations and peace building operations by taking into account the post conflict scenario in which they operate Based on these two analyses an enquiry into the practice of the reconstruction processes in Kosovo East Timor Afghanistan and Iraq is undertaken to analyse and understand the influence of the international legal framework and the different approaches on the implementation of the mandates Finally the book concludes with an analysis of questions on exit strategies local ownership the internationalisation of domestic institutions and the need for a comprehensive approach towards post conflict reconstruction

Secular War Stacey Gutkowski, 2013-11-27 How have long standing and unconscious secular assumptions about religion shaped the post 9 11 climate and its wars Stacey Gutkowski explores this little examined yet crucial element of British perceptions of and policy towards Jihadism over the last decade to draw critical conclusions about the relationship between war and the secular She points to a surprisingly coherent body of secular beliefs that have fuelled policies in Iraq Afghanistan and counter terrorism and that have had mixed results responsible for both positive strategies and tragic errors The theory Gutkowski develops on the impact of this secular approach to warfare holds a broader global significance and cannot be viewed as just a British phenomenon This book addresses ongoing and critical debates such as the overreach of Western liberal interventionism in the Middle East and speaks to policy makers security analysts and students of IR Foreign Policy and Security Studies
