Understanding Gifted Adolescents Joanna Simpson,Megan Glover Adams,2015-12-16 Understanding Gifted Adolescents Accepting the Exceptional addresses the basis of exclusive education for gifted adolescents from the theoretical perspective of social identity Using the lens of social identity theory and adolescent development related to giftedness this book builds the case for a curriculum for gifted adolescents By providing a comprehensive foundation for exploring the concept of a more exclusive education scholastically and debunking the elitist concept of gifted education this book is a well organized and clearly structured exposition for the philosophy of gifted education as well as a means of putting a curricular model into practice in American high schools With pointed critiques of differentiated instruction in the general education classroom and the current trend of standardization and normalization in the current educational climate a new philosophy for addressing gifted education is presented

Emerging Trends in Education Policy Theodore S. Ransaw,Brian Boggs,2023-06-01 From the moment society first conceived an education system there has been a need to have critical discussions about how best to provide education and how best to create education policy Because of the rapidly changing and fluid nature of technology education has become the most crucial component to having a better life around the globe The purpose of Emerging Trends in Education Policy Unapologetic Progressive Conversations is to highlight impactful policies strategies initiatives and approaches to educational reform globally nationally as well as locally through an edited volume Emerging Trends in Education Policy offers readers the opportunity to read contributions from researchers and policymakers who like to make a ruckus and speak to an audience that appreciates disruption Emerging Trends in Education Policy provides space for researchers to take intellectual risks and policymakers to be on the cutting edge of educational policy change Educators often do not have the time to research and propose policy recommendations despite the fact they are the people that deliver the content Professors often delay their more provocative findings and suggestions until after full tenure By encouraging chapters from professors that were K 12 teachers at one time first and researchers second Emerging Trends in Education Policy Unapologetic Progressive

Conversation fulfills the need for innovative policy reform based on recommendations from practitioners with direct knowledge in the field

The Shame of the Nation Jonathan Kozol, 2005-09-13 The nation needs to be confronted with the crime that we are committing and the promises we are betraying This is a book about betrayal of the young who have no power to defend themselves It is not intended to make readers comfortable Over the past several years Jonathan Kozol has visited nearly 60 public schools Virtually everywhere he finds that conditions have grown worse for inner city children in the 15 years since federal courts began dismantling the landmark ruling in Brown v Board of Education First a state of nearly absolute apartheid now prevails in thousands of our schools The segregation of black children has reverted to a level that the nation has not seen since 1968 Few of the students in these schools know white children any longer Second a protomilitary form of discipline has now emerged modeled on stick and carrot methods of behavioral control traditionally used in prisons but targeted exclusively at black and Hispanic children And third as high stakes testing takes on pathological and punitive dimensions liberal education in our inner city schools has been increasingly replaced by culturally barren and robotic methods of instruction that would be rejected out of hand by schools that serve the mainstream of society Filled with the passionate voices of children and their teachers and some of the most revered and trusted leaders in the black community The Shame of the Nation is a triumph of firsthand reporting that pays tribute to those undefeated educators who persist against the odds but directly challenges the chilling practices now being forced upon our urban systems by the Bush administration In their place Kozol offers a humane dramatic challenge to our nation to fulfill at last the promise made some 50 years ago to all our youngest citizens From The Shame of the Nation I went to Washington to challenge the soft bigotry of low expectations the president said in his campaign for reelection in September 2004 It's working It's making a difference It is one of those deadly lies which by sheer repetition is at length accepted by large numbers of Americans as perhaps a rough approximation of the truth But it is not the truth and it is not an innocent misstatement of the facts It is a devious appeasement of the heartache of the parents of the poor and if it is not forcefully resisted and denounced it is going to lead our nation even further in a perilous direction Also available as a Random House AudioBook and an eBook

Early Childhood Education and Care Quality in Europe and the USA Konstantina Rentzou, Ruslan Slutsky, 2020-05-21 This book captures information about early childhood education and care ECEC policies and practices in different countries and aims to question the degree to which these countries have managed to meet the needs of children families and the ECEC workforce The book illustrates how different countries have adapted different strategies focusing on policy when it comes to quality ECEC The goal of the book is twofold First and foremost it aims to present key findings and challenges for improving ECEC as a whole Second it aims to highlight problems and concerns which the field of ECEC faces with respect to delivering high quality care and education to all children As neither ECEC nor quality are universal concepts but are shaped by social cultural values as well as national economic and political contexts in which ECEC services are provided this cross country volume is extremely relevant for fully understanding issues in the field of ECEC This book was originally published as a special issue of Early Child Development and Care Teaching Literacy in Fourth Grade Denise Johnson,2013-10-21 Fourth grade is a momentous year for literacy learning Having left the primary grades behind students must grapple with more demanding texts and content material and effective motivating instruction can help them succeed This book helps teachers vanquish the dreaded fourth grade slump by creating an energized and organized learning environment in which all students can improve their reading and writing strategies Taking readers into the classroom of an exemplary fourth grade teacher the book includes useful assessment tools differentiation techniques mini lessons unit plans reproducibles and examples of student work Special attention is given to meeting the challenges of high stakes testing without sacrificing instructional quality Parent's Guide to Standards ,1998 Why Kids Love (and Hate) School Steven P. Jones,Eric C. Sheffield,2018-11-19 Some students enter classrooms with an I dare you try to teach me look on their faces and others bounce into class excited to learn and anxious to please the teacher We know we can t automatically blame teachers or schools when students don t want to learn But we also know that sometimes teachers and schools don t always set students up for success and they don t always help them love what they re learning Why Kids Love and Hate School Reflections on Practice investigates some of the school and classroom practices that help students love school and some that send students in the opposite direction Intended for classroom teachers teacher education students and school administrators chapters in the book investigate a variety of topics how schools can build effective school cultures the struggle students encounter in learning practices of other countries that help students love school testing practices that cause students to hate school and much more Perfect for courses in Introduction to Education General Methods Management Assessment Educational Research Educational Administration Leadership Teacher Leadership Curriculum Theory Curriculum Development
