How to write a characterization Characters can be presented in two ways: a) direct (explicit) characterization: the narrator or a character tells the reader what sort of person a character is b) indirect (implicit) characterization: the reader has to draw conclusions about what the character is like by what the character says or does Step 1

Make a grid and note down: •

what the narrator or other characters say about the character you are dealing with

what the character says about him- or herself

the character's outward appearance (e.g. what he or she looks like) the character's behaviour (e.g. what he or she says, thinks or does) add the lines from the text so that you can find the passages later more easily Step 2

From your notes •

draw conclusions about the character (e.g. what kind of person is he or she?) from what he or she says, thinks or does find appropriate adjectives

How To Write A Paper On Characterization:

Embracing the Tune of Phrase: An Mental Symphony within How To Write A Paper On Characterization

In a global eaten by displays and the ceaseless chatter of quick communication, the melodic beauty and mental symphony created by the written term usually diminish into the background, eclipsed by the constant noise and interruptions that permeate our lives. But, nestled within the pages of How To Write A Paper On Characterization a wonderful fictional value overflowing with organic feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by a wonderful composer of language, this charming masterpiece conducts viewers on an emotional journey, skillfully unraveling the concealed songs and profound impact resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths of this emotional evaluation, we will explore the book is main harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing style, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
