You are the manager in charge of the audit of this company, for their current financial year, which ends on 31 August 2014. You are busy with the final stages of planning for this audit in the second week of August and you are concerned, particularly with the audit of accounts receivable.

The financial manager Joshua Couch has informed you that Morfum (Pty) Ltd have appointed Thuli Madumbi a qualified chartered accountant, as internal auditor. Many such cases were only brought to light by the audit procedures which your firm carried out at the previous year-end. Your discussions with Joshua Couch, suggest that a similar situation is likely to exist again for the current year.
3. The accounting staff in the accounts receivable department are all relatively inexperienced and have little in the way of formal qualifications. Staff turnover in this department has been rather high over the past two years, as management offer unattractive salaries and few incentives for these positions. As a result,
