Drylands Facing Change Angela Kronenburg García, Tobias Haller, Han van Dijk, Cyrus Samimi, Jeroen Warner, 2022-12-13 This edited volume examines the changes that arise from the entanglement of global interests and narratives with the local struggles that have always existed in the drylands of Africa the Middle East and Central Asia Inner Asia Changes in drylands are happening in an overwhelming manner Climate change growing political instability and increasing enclosures of large expanses of often common land are some of the changes with far reaching consequences for those who make their living in the drylands At the same time powerful narratives about the drylands as wastelands and their backward inhabitants continue to hold sway legitimizing interventions for development security and conservation informing re emerging frontiers of investment for agriculture extraction infrastructure and shaping new dryland identities The chapters in this volume discuss the politics of change triggered by forces as diverse as the global land and resource rush the expansion of new Information and Communication Technologies urbanization the COVID 19 pandemic and the spread of violent extremism While recognizing that changes are co produced by differently positioned actors from within and outside the drylands this volume presents the dryland s point of view It therefore takes the views experiences and agencies of dryland dwellers as the point of departure to not only understand the changes that are transforming their lives livelihoods and future aspirations but also to highlight the unexpected spaces of contestation and innovation that have hitherto remained understudied This edited volume will be of much interest to students researchers and scholars of natural resource management land and resource grabbing political ecology sustainable development and drylands in general The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license

Finance Week ,2002 I Series Stephen Haag,James T. Perry,Amy Phillips,2002 The I Series Applications textbooks strongly emphasize that students learn and master applications skills by being actively engaged by doing These texts have been written with clear error free and unambiguous steps to accomplish tasks that lead to a finished document worksheet or database table The authors made the decision that teaching how to accomplish some task is not enough for complete understanding and mastery Prior to introducing steps the authors discuss why the steps students are about to experience are important and what role the steps play in the overall plan for creating a document workbook or database
