Major Edit The Christian Message What Happened To Us:

Preaching, Sermon and Cultural Change in the Long Eighteenth Century Joris Van Eijnatten, 2009 This study offers a broad outline of the history of the eighteenth century sermon Thematically it provides an overview of the research over the past three decades as well as suggesting new approaches to the history of preaching Messages in the Mall Paul V. Marshall, 2008 For more than a decade the author has been writing a Saturday religion column syndicated in ten newspapers in the 14 counties of Pennsylvania that comprise the Episcopal Diocese of Bethlehem The 600 words or less in the subtitle comes form the rigorous discipline of writing to strict space requirements The intent of the columns is to engage the secular culture and to bring the church's message to it by commenting on the realities of the human condition and on issues of general interest This book is a compilation of many of the columns organized along thematic lines This book will be an ideal cross denominational trade book for individual reading or group use The short take format lends itself to episodic reading and will appeal to the individual daily prayer market Clergy will find the book an excellent source for sermon ideas

The Modern Christian's Happiness Plan James D. Baird, 2000 The purpose of this book is to set forth a user friendly plan with practical methods for change such that happiness habits become part of every day life T&T Clark Handbook of Christian Theology and Climate Change Hilda P. Koster, Ernst M. Conradie, 2019-12-12 The T these essays are critically engaged by respondents situated in other geographic regions minority communities non Christian traditions or non theological disciplines Structured in seven main parts the handbook explores 1 the need for collaboration with disciplines outside of Christian theology to address climate change 2 the need to find common moral ground for such collaboration 3 the difficulties posed by collaborating with other Christian traditions from within 4 the questions that emerge from such collaboration for understanding the story of God's work and 5 God's identity and character 6 the implications of such collaboration for ecclesial praxis and 7 concluding reflections examining whether this volume does justice to issues of race gender class other animals religious diversity geographical divides and carbon mitigation This rich ecumenical cross cultural conversation provides a comprehensive and in depth engagement with the theological and moral challenges raised by anthropogenic climate change Culture, Communication, and Christianity Charles H. Kraft, 2001 Charles Kraft is a well known author educator linguist anthropologist and missiologist This book consists of his selected writings compiled over more than three decades Subjects including anthropology communication worldview ethnolinguistics hermeneutics and contextualization are dealt with as they relate to Christianity and Kraft's unique perspective Kraft's personal story and an exhaustive bibliography of his personal writings from 1961 2000 are included This book is of extraodrinary value to those who desire to study Christianity culture and communication and the interplay between all three The Evangelical Church at the Crossroads of Secular Culture and Change Dr. Arnold O. Thompson, 2025-03-28 This book lays out in clear biblical and specific ways how the kingdom of God can effectively intersect with the kingdom of this world The author first laid out the dark forces in the churches engagement in the so called cultural wars like storm force winds blowing at the doors of the church to influence its message change its historical methods corrupt its mission It identifies the crises in all three areas The author contends that by and large the so called cultural wars waged by sections of the evangelical church have been lost in the real mission of the Christian church The book does not linger long here but rigorously lays out the biblical mandate and methods for the church to regain its purpose and mission of Christ in the world This is the goal of this book From the start the author understood this was an extensive undertaking to stand like John on the island of Patmos looking at visions of the modern church and to write a manifesto as if to say for God I see you I see what a large and influential segment of the church is doing which I contend is hurting the cause of Christ and His Gospel today But also to say that I see what is needed to again influence the culture to turn to Christ To give as did John a clear voice to defy the confusions and uncertainties and communicate effectively the Gospel of Christ to a lost world This goal would seem impossible to see a revival of the Gospel in secular culture like the great revivals of the past Except the ancient prophets said as did Peter in the revival of Pentecost In the last days God says I will pour out my Spirit on all people Your sons and daughters will prophesy your young men will see visions your old men will dream dreams Acts 2 17 This book is a dream path to the reality of a revival of the Gospel in our times Pacific Christian Advocate ,1908 A Theology for Artisans of a New Humanity, Volume 3 Juan L.
