Senior, Daniel J. Harrington, 2016-03-16 Crisis in the church is not a new phenomenon In fact the church has always been and probably always will be involved in some kind of crisis Even in the apostolic period which is regarded by many as the church's golden age there were serious crises coming both from the outside as in 1 Peter and from the inside as in Jude and 2 Peter The three short New Testament letters treated in 1 Peter Jude and 2 Peter illustrate the problems early Christians faced as well as the rhetorical techniques and theological concepts with which they combated those problems In the first part of this volume Donald Senior views 1 Peter as written from Rome in Peter's name to several churches in northern Asia Minor present day Turkey in the latter part of the first century C E The new Christians addressed in 1 Peter found themselves aliens and exiles in the wider Greco Roman society and suffered a kind of social ostracism But they are given a marvelous theological Vision of who they have become through their baptism and pastoral encouragement to stand firm They are shown how to take a missionary stance toward the outside world by giving the witness of a holy and blameless life to offset the slander and ignorance of the non Christian majority and possibly even to lead them to glorify God on the day of judgment In the second part of this volume Daniel Harrington interprets Jude and 2 Peter as confronting crises in the late first century that were perpetrated by Christian teachers who are described polemically as intruders in Jude and as false teachers in 2 Peter In confronting the crises within their churches the authors appeal frequently to the Old Testament and to early summaries of Christian faith While Jude uses other Jewish traditions 2 Peter includes most of the text of Jude as well as many distinctively Greek terms and concepts It is clear that for the authors despite their different social settings what was at stake was the struggle for the faith Daniel J Harrington SJ is a professor of New Testament at Weston Jesuit School of Theology in Cambridge Massachusetts and general editor of New Testament Abstracts He is a past president of the Catholic Biblical Association of America and the editor of the Sacra Pagina series He also wrote The Gospel of Matthew in the Sacra Pagina series Donald Senior CP is a professor of New Testament studies and president of Catholic Theological Union in Chicago He was recently appointed by Pope John Paul II to the Pontifical Biblical Commission General editor of The Bible Today he also co edited The Collegeville Pastoral Dictionary of the Bible and the 22 volume international commentary series New Testament Message and he wrote the four volume The Passion series published by The Liturgical Press The Epistles of John, Jude, and the Book of Revelation Alexander Maclaren, 1910 Judges Arthur Charles Hervey, 1881 The Englishman's Greek Concordance of the New Testament George V.
