College Admission Robin Mamlet, Christine VanDeVelde, 2011-08-16 College Admission is the ultimate user's manual and go to guide for any student or family approaching the college application process. Featuring the wise counsel of more than 50 deans of admission, no other guide has such thorough, expert, compassionate, and professional advice. Let's be honest: applying to college can be stressful for students and parents. But here's the good news: you can get in. Robin Mamlet has been dean of admission at three of America's most selective colleges and journalist and parent. Christine VanDeVelde has been through the process first hand. With this book, you will feel like you have both a dean of admission and a parent who has been there at your side. Inside this book, you'll find clear, comprehensive, and expert answers to all your questions along the way to an acceptance letter. The role of extracurricular activities. What it means to find a college that's the right fit. What's more important: high grades or tough courses? What role does testing play? The best candidates for early admission. When help from parents is too much help. Advice for athletes, artists, international students, and those with learning differences. How wait lists work. Applying for financial aid. This will be your definitive resource during the sophomore, junior, and senior years of high school.

Admission Matters Sally P. Springer, Joyce Vining Morgan, Nancy Griesemer, Jon Reider, 2023-08-22 The most up to date version of the best selling guide to college admissions for over twenty years. Newly revised and thoroughly updated, the fifth edition of Admission Matters continues to be the go to guide for students and families seeking help with the college admissions process. Higher education experts Sally P. Springer, Ph.D., Joyce Vining Morgan, Ph.D., Nancy Griesemer, M.A., and Jon Reider, Ph.D., deliver a practical and accessible roadmap for a successful admissions outcome, whether the student is a high school freshman or a senior about to apply to college. Reassuring and easy to read, Admission Matters provides deep insight into a process that has become increasingly complex and unpredictable with each passing year. In the fifth edition, readers will learn how to build a balanced college list, when to apply, what goes into crafting a compelling application, how colleges make decisions, how financial aid works, and more. Admission Matters offers real world expert advice for all students, whether they're aiming for an Ivy or a state school close to home. The book provides practical guidance for students and families, whether they come from an under-resourced background or one that has provided abundant opportunities. Admission Matters also includes much needed information for students with special circumstances, including students with disabilities, international students, transfers, and non-traditional students. Athletes, artists, and performers, and homeschoolers will also have many of their questions answered as they plan for and apply to college. Admission Matters also provides the latest information on the shift to test optional or test free admissions at many schools and what that means for you. The transition to an adaptive digital format for the SAT. Changes to the federal process for financial aid. What selective colleges are increasingly looking for when faced with growing numbers of applications. Differences among colleges and how to choose the best fit schools. Early decision and early action applications and when they make sense. And much more. The latest edition of

Admission Matters remains the gold standard in guides to the ever changing and often intimidating process of college admissions

The Qualified Student Harold S. Wechsler, 2017-09-29 In The Qualified Student Harold S. Wechsler focuses on methods of student selection used by institutions of higher education in the United States. More specifically, he discusses the way that college and university reformers employed those methods to introduce higher education into a broader cross section of America by extending access to an increased number of students from nontraditional backgrounds. Implicit in much of this book is an underlying social and ethical question: How legitimate was and is higher education's regulation of social mobility? Public concern over colleges and universities' practices became inevitable once they became regulators between social classes. The challenging of colleges' admissions policies in the courts augments similar concerns that have been present in legislatures for decades. The volume is divided into three main sections: Prerequisites, Columbia and the Selective Function, and Implications. It focuses mainly on four universities: The University of Michigan, Columbia University, the University of Chicago, and the City University of New York. Wechsler maintains that unlike other universities, these institutions were pacesetters; they did not adopt a new policy simply because some other college had already adopted it. A new introduction brings the book, originally published in 1977, up to date and demonstrates its continuing importance in today's academic world of selective admissions.

Getting IN by Standing OUT Deborah Bedor, 2015-04-13 The Rules for Admission Have Changed. Are you worried about what other families of high-achieving children know that you don't about getting your child into a great college? A best-fit college. An Ivy University or top-tier college. An intellectually challenging college. Getting IN by Standing Out will show you exactly how to discover, develop, and present your authentic high school journey to get noticed by Admissions among the thousands of other student applicants and get ACCEPTED at your top schools. Getting IN by Standing OUT is the heralded eye-opening guide that students, parents, and high school admission counselors have awaited. The book tells you, through personal student stories, peerless advice from Dr. Bedor's eminent twenty-five-year career, and brilliant out-of-the-box steps, what college admissions actually looks for today. Dr. Bedor provides a heartwarming aspirational handbook that coaxes and inspires students to use their high school years for a personal quest, intellectual passion, or social cause that is in line with their authentic gifts, strengths, and ambitions. All things being equal, grades, scores, and recommendations; it is now your leadership and creative quest towards YOU that reveals the character and intellect that the gatekeepers to Admissions seek. Inside, Dr. Deborah Bedor empowers you to discover your passions, create impact, and thrive on intellectual and entrepreneurial engagement. Invest in yourself so the top colleges will want to invest in you. Learn the study habits and tests that show you off the best. Brag artfully to remain likeable. Structure exceptional and meaningful essays explaining why you do what you do because the WHY is everything. Uncover generous merit-based financial awards. Ace your admissions interview. High School is a vibrant, open all-night laboratory in which to begin creating yourself. Find the thing that fascinates you, and you will become fascinating.
