Kzn Geography Pjune 2014:

Urban Geography in South Africa Ruth Massey, Ashley Gunter, 2019-08-17 This book embraces South Africa and its place in the Global South providing a succinct theoretical and empirical analysis and discussion of urban issues in the country There have been sporadic calls from the Urban Geography community for the development of an overarching and comprehensive text that explores contemporary processes and practices taking place in urban South Africa and more widely the Global South This is an edited collection of chapters by leading urban theorists and practitioners working on various themes within urban South Africa and serves as a base for scholars and students interested in urban perspectives from countries in the Global South

From Local Action to Global Networks: Housing the Urban Poor Peter Herrle, Astrid Ley, 2016-03-09 Over the past two decades it has become widely recognized that housing issues have to be placed in a broader framework acknowledging that civil society in the form of Community Based Organizations CBOs and their allies are increasingly networking and emerging as strong players that cannot easily be overlooked Some of these networks have crossed local and national boundaries and have jumped political scales This implies that housing issues have to be looked at from new angles they can no longer simply be addressed through localized projects but rather at multiple scales The current debate is largely limited to statements about the relevance of individual organizations for local housing processes and tends to overlook the innovativeness in terms of re scaling those processes and of influencing institutional change at various levels by transcending national boundaries There is a significant lack of a systemic understanding of such globally operating grassroots networks and how they function in the housing process This book brings together different perspectives on multi scalar approaches within the housing field and on grassroots engagement with formal agencies including local government higher levels of government and international agencies By moving away from romanticizing local self initiatives it focuses on understanding the emerging potential once local initiatives are interlinked and scaled up to transnational networks

The Geography of South Africa Jasper Knight, Christian M. Rogerson, 2018-10-03 This edited collection examines contemporary directions in geographical research on South Africa It encompasses a cross section of selected themes of critical importance not only to the discipline of Geography in South Africa but also of relevance to other areas of the Global South All chapters are original contributions providing a state of the art research baseline on key themes in physical human and environmental geography and in understanding the changing geographical landscapes of modern South Africa These contributions set the scene for an understanding of the relationships between modern South Africa and the wider contemporary world including issues of sustainable development and growth in the Global South

Exile Identity, Agency and Belonging in South Africa Zosa De Sas Kropiwnicki, 2017-07-13 This book examines the experiences of 49 second generation exiles from South Africa Using generation as an analytical concept it investigates the relational temporal and embodied nature of their childhoods in terms of kinship relations life cycle cohort development and memory making It reveals how child agents exploited the liminal nature of exile to negotiate their sense of identity home and belonging while also struggling over their position and power in formal Politics and informal politics of the everyday It also reflects upon their political consciousness identity and sense of civic duty on return to post apartheid South Africa and how this has led to the emergence of the Masupatsela generational cohort concerned with driving social and political change in South Africa

Welcome to Greater Edendale Marc Epprecht, 2016-11-01 In the coming decades the bulk of Africa's anticipated urban population growth will take place in smaller cities Failure to manage environmental and public health problems in one such aspiring city Edendale has fostered severe pollution seemingly intractable poverty and gender inequalities that directly fuel one of the worst HIV AIDS pandemics in the world A nuanced and timely presentation of South African responses to changing times conditions opportunities and state interventions Welcome to Greater Edendale reconstructs nearly two centuries of contestation over land governance human rights identity housing sanitation public health and the meaning of development Bringing gender and health issues to the foreground Marc Epprecht reveals many unexpected or forgotten triumphs against environmental injustice but also unsettling continuities between colonial apartheid and post apartheid policies to spur economic growth Sheltered from the glare of national media and often overlooked by scholars smaller cities like Edendale attract political patronage corruption and violent protests while rapid climate change promises to further strain their infrastructure social services and public health A challenging innovative and thoughtful examination of the history and politics of South Africa Welcome to Greater Edendale questions the common assumptions embedded in environmental policy gender relations democracy and the neoliberal model of development in which so many African cities are ensnared

Managing the City Economy Le-Yin Zhang, 2015-03-24 In a world increasingly organised as networks of cities this book offers the first full length treatment of the subject of managing the city economy It explores key challenges and strategies particularly in developing countries where developmental deficits are greatest and almost all urban growth up to 2050 will take place Adopting a practitioner's perspective theoretically grounded and international in scope this book is unique in its focus and endeavours to connect theory with practice Through an interdisciplinary and strategic approach this book explores the challenges and options in managing the contemporary city economy It aims to illustrate the extent to which appropriate policy interventions in the city economy could offer effective solutions to some of the most difficult social and environmental challenges facing cities The book comprises five main parts Part I sets the scene and examines contemporary processes that affect cities and explains the challenges they pose for city managers Part II presents a selection of conceptual frameworks commonly used in urban economic analysis Part III examines the management of sectoral growth covering manufacturing exports of services transport and logistics and real estate Part IV addresses urban poverty low carbon transition and the informal economy Part V focuses on laying the foundation for long term city development exploring the roles of city development strategies municipal finance investment in people and appropriate infrastructure This book is designed for graduate courses in urban economic development urban planning urban policy and public administration and for professionals who are involved in the management of city economies or and conducting research consultancy or policy advocacy for cities Through critical review of relevant debates and a dozen case studies this book will equip city managers with the knowledge required to strengthen the performance of their city economy while delivering authentic and sustainable development

African Studies: Breakthroughs in Research and Practice Management Association, Information Resources, 2020-04-03 Global interest in African studies has been rapidly growing as researchers realize the importance of understanding the impact African communities can have on the economy development education and more As the use acceptance and popularity of African knowledge increases it is crucial to explore how this community based knowledge provides deeper insights understanding and influence on such things as decision making and problem solving African Studies Breakthroughs in Research and Practice examines the politics culture language history socio economic development methodologies and contemporary experiences of African peoples from around the world Highlighting a range of topics such as indigenous knowledge developing countries and public administration this publication is an ideal reference source for sociologists policymakers anthropologists government officials economists instructors researchers academicians and graduate level students in a variety of fields

The Geography of Climate Change Adaptation in Urban Africa Patrick Brandful Cobbinah, Michael Addaney, 2019-01-29 This book takes a comprehensive look at several cases of climate change adaptation responses across various sectors and geographical areas in urban Africa and places them within a solid theoretical context Each chapter is a state of the art overview of a significant topic on climate change adaptation in urban Africa and is written by a leading expert in the field In addition to the focus on the geography of urban adaptation to climate change in Africa this collection offers a broader perspective by blending the use of case studies and theory based research It examines transformations in climate change adaptation and its future orientation from the perspectives of urban planners political economists environmentalists ecologists economists and geographers thereby addressing the challenges facing African cities adaptation responses from all angles Providing up to date and authoritative contributions covering the key aspects of climate change adaptation in urban Africa this book will be of great interest to policymakers practitioners scholars and students of geography urban development and management environmental science and policy disaster management as well as those in the field of urban planning

Sustainable Urban Development and Globalization Agostino Petrillo, Paola Bellaviti, 2017-11-24 This book equips readers with a deeper understanding of the challenges posed by radical socioeconomic environmental and cultural changes due to globalization and describes effective sustainable solutions to these challenges The focus is especially on the rapid urbanization processes in countries of the Global South which are giving rise to dramatic new problems of spatial and social inequality and difficult environmental challenges in relation to climate change Readers will gain skills and knowledge that will help them to develop an integrated multidisciplinary approach to planning design and management of urban settlements and territories in contexts with a high level of social economic territorial and landscape vulnerability The coverage includes for example strategies to promote social inclusion improve housing quality ensure adequate education protect cultural heritage enhance risk management and address issues in the food energy water nexus Among the authors are leading experts from the Polytechnic University of Milan where a multidisciplinary set of studies and research projects in the field have been undertaken in recent years Social, Political and Cultural Challenges of the BRICS Lins Ribeiro, Tom Dwyer, 2015-02-07 For the almost 40 years of its existence ANPOCS has contributed to introducing or consolidating new thematic areas in the academic agenda of debates in the Brazilian social sciences Commensurate with this history at the 37th Annual meeting hosted inguas de Lindoia So Paulo in 2013 we organized a large International Symposium The BRICS and their social political and cultural challenges on the national and international levels There were six sessions of debates gathered under the umbrella of Development and public policies Social inclusion and social justice and Emerging powers and transformations in the international system followed by a final plenary session Around 30 anthropologists political scientists sociologists and researchers in international relations from Brazil Russia India China and South Africa met over three highly productive days As might be expected at ANPOCS the encounter was marked not only by the diversity of countries and disciplines but also by the theoretical and political diversity of the participants something already apparent in the composition of the Brazilian coordinators of the Symposium This book is just one tangible outcome of the papers and dialogues emerging from this encounter Like the Symposium the volume is divided into three sections Looking to address an international readership it is published in Portuguese and English The State of African Cities, 2014 United Nations Publications, 2015-09-10 The African continent is currently in the midst of simultaneously unfolding and highly significant demographic economic technological environmental urban and socio political transitions Africa s economic performance is promising with booming cities supporting growing middle classes and creating sizable consumer markets Despite significant overall growth the continent continues to suffer under very rapid urban growth accompanied by massive urban poverty and many other social problems These seem to indicate that the development trajectories followed by African nations since post independence may not be able to deliver on the aspirations of broad based human development and prosperity for all This report therefore argues for a bold re imagining of prevailing models in order to steer the ongoing transitions towards greater sustainability based on a thorough review of all available options That is especially the case since the already daunting urban challenges in Africa are now being exacerbated by the new vulnerabilities and threats associated with climate and environmental change Political Geography Colin Flint, Peter J. Taylor, 2025-04-04 The new and updated eighth edition of Political Geography once again shows itself fit to tackle a frequently and rapidly changing geopolitical landscape It retains the intellectual clarity rigour and vision of previous editions based upon its world systems approach and is complemented by the perspective of feminist geography The book successfully integrates the complexity of individuals with the complexity of the world economy by merging the compatible but different research agendas of the co authors This edition explores political geography within the context of US China competition Russia s war with Ukraine global climate change new technologies and challenges to democracy It advances the discussion from the previous editions on the dynamics of the capitalist world economy and the constant tension between the global scale of economic processes and the territorialization of politics in the current context of geopolitical change The chapters have been updated with new examples new sections on global climate change populism and the growing threat of global war The book offers a framework to help students make their own judgements of how we got where we are today and what may or should be done about it Political Geography remains a core text for students of political geography geopolitics international relations and political science as well as more broadly across human geography and the social sciences

The Contested Idea of South Africa Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Busani Ngcaweni, 2021-11-29 This book reflects on the complex and contested idea of South Africa drawing on a wide range of disciplinary perspectives Ever since the delineation of South Africa as a country the many diverse groups of people contained within its borders have struggled to translate a mere geographical description into the identity of a people Today the new struggles for South Africa and to become South African are inextricably intertwined with complex challenges of transformation xenophobia claims of reverse racism social justice economic justice service delivery and the resurgent decolonization struggles reverberating inside the universities This book covers the genealogy of the idea of South Africa exploring how the country has been conceived of by a broad group of actors including the British Afrikaners diverse African nationalist traditions and new formations such as the Economic Freedom Fighters EFF Black First Land First BLF and student formations Rhodes Must Fall Fees Must Fall Over the course of the book a broad range of themes are covered including identity formation modernity race ethnicity indigeneity autochthony land gender intellectual traditions poetics of South Africanness language popular culture truth and reconciliation and national development planning Concluding with important reflections on how a colonial imaginary can be changed into a free and inclusive postcolonial nation state this book will be an important read for Africanist researchers from across the humanities and social sciences

Making Public in a Privatized World David A. McDonald, 2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past
