Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumière screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumière brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe R ge identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director s entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual s education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age_Jean Renoir and RenZ Clair_to French New Wave artists such as Fran_ois Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard French News ,1963 Pronoun Envy Anna Livia,2001 Controversy over gendered pronouns for example using the generic he has been a staple of feminist arguments about patriarchal language over the last 30 years and is certainly the most contested political issue in Western feminist linguistics Most accounts do not extend beyond policy issues like the official institution of non sexist language In this volume Anna Livia reveals continuities both before and after the sexist language reform movement and shows how the creative practices of pronoun use on the part of feminist writers had both aesthetic and political ends Livia uses the term pronoun envy ironically to show that rather being a case of misguided envy battles over gendered language are central to feminist concerns Livia examines a broad corpus of written texts in English and French concentrating on those texts which problematize the traditional functioning of the linguistic gender system They range from novels and prose poems to film scripts and personal testimonies and in time from the 19th century to the present Some withhold any indication of gender others have non gendered characters Livia s goal is two fold to help bridge the divide between linguistic and literary analysis and to show how careful study of the manipulation of linguistic gender in these texts informs larger concerns This fresh and highly interdisciplinary work lies at the intersection of several vital areas including language and gender sociolinguistics and feminist literary analysis Répertitres François Verschaeve,2007 Adapted from the Original Laurence Raw,2018-08-28 Critics and audiences often judge films books and other media as great but what does that really mean This collection of new essays examines the various criteria by which degrees of greatness or not so are constructed whether by personal political or social standards through topics in cinema literature and adaptation The contributors recognize how issues of value vary across different cultures and explore what those differences say about attitudes and beliefs Film Copyright in the European Union Pascal Kamina,2016-04-28 Intellectual property issues in the film industry are often highly complex and in today s world are evolving rapidly In this second edition of Film Copyright in the European Union Pascal Kamina unravels the complexities of film protection in twenty eight member states of the European Union including thirteen new member states who have joined since the first edition As well as addressing key aspects of film copyright Pascal Kamina also deals with the protection of film works within the European Union in the context of European harmonisation of copyright laws Including a new chapter on copyright enforcement this second edition details the substantial developments in EU law during the last decade including major cases for the European Court of Justice new treaties and new directives This book will interest practitioners academics and students The developments on contracts and moral rights will be of particular interest to lawyers outside continental Europe
