Research in Education, 1974

Globalization, Nationalism, and Music Education in the Twenty-First Century in Greater China Wai-Chung Ho, 2025-10-01 Globalization Nationalism and Music Education in the Twenty First Century in Greater China examines the recent developments in school education and music education in Greater China Mainland China Hong Kong and Taiwan and the relationship between and integration of national cultural identity and globalization in their respective school curriculums. Regardless of their common history and cultural backgrounds in recent decades these localities have experienced divergent political cultural and educational structures. Through an analysis of the literature official curriculum documents approved music textbooks and a survey questionnaire and in depth interviews with music teachers this book also examines the ways in which policies for national identity formation and globalization interact to complement and contradict each other in the context of music education in respect to national and cultural values in the three territories. Wai Chung Ho's substantive research interests include the sociology of music China's education system and the comparative study of East Asian music education. Her research focuses on education and development with an emphasis on the impact of the interplay between globalization nationalization and localization on cultural development and school music education.

Resources in Education, 1992

Creativity and Culture in Greater China Chi-Cheung Leung, Sonny Shiu-Hing Lo, 2015-06-01 This publication unveils creative ideas on knowledge transfer from historical references to commercialization of cultural products. It adopts multidisciplinary cross cultural and experimental approaches to study the cultural industries including art music popular culture psychology entrepreneurship and economic studies. These scholarly thoughts and ideas were presented in the two conferences held at the Hong Kong Institute of Education in the summer of 2013. The chapters critically evaluate the current situation of the cultural industries and review the underlying relationships between the different sectors in the field. By assessing the development of the cultural industries the authors hope that market and government intervention can enhance further consolidation and minimize hindrance to the growth of creativity.

The New Handbook of Research on Music Teaching and Learning Richard Colwell, Carol Richardson, 2002-04-18 Featuring chapters by the world's foremost scholars in music education and cognition this handbook is a convenient collection of current research on music teaching and learning. This comprehensive work includes sections on arts advocacy music and medicine teacher education and studio instruction among other subjects making it an essential reference for music education programs. The original Handbook of Research on Music Teaching and Learning published in 1992 with the sponsorship of the Music Educators National Conference (MENC) was hailed as a welcome addition to the literature on music education because it serves to provide definition and unity to a broad and complex field. Choice This new companion volume again with the sponsorship of MENC explores the significant changes in music and arts education that have taken place in the last decade. Notably several chapters now incorporate insights from other fields to shed light on multi cultural music education gender issues in music education and non musical outcomes of music education. Other chapters offer practical information on maintaining musicians health training music teachers and evaluating music education programs. Philosophical issues such as musical cognition the philosophy of research theory curriculum and educating musically are also explored in relationship to policy issues. In addition to surveying the literature each chapter considers the significance of the research and provides suggestions for future study Covering a broad range of topics and addressing the issues of music education at all age levels from early childhood to motivation and self regulation this handbook is an invaluable resource for music teachers researchers and scholars Toward Excellence in Education ,1975 Physical and Health Education in Canada Barrett, Joe,Scaini, Carol,2019 Physical and Health Education in Canada Integrated Strategies for Elementary Teachers is a compendium of integrated evidence based approaches to physical and health education teaching from leading physical and health educators and researchers from across Canada
