The Imagined and Real Jerusalem in Art and Architecture Jeroen Goudeau, Mariette Verhoeven, Wouter Weijers, 2014-09-22 In The Imagined and Real Jerusalem in Art and Architecture specialists in various fields of art history from Early Christian times to the present discuss in depth a series of Western artworks artefacts and buildings which question the visualization of Jerusalem David Zwirner: 25 Years Richard Shiff, Robert Storr, 2018-10-23 Published on the occasion of the twenty five year anniversary of David Zwirner this book paints a picture of the gallery's growth and development through the lens of the artists that have shaped it Since its founding in 1993 David Zwirner has above all else been guided by its artist centric ethos Beginning with the gallery's early days on Greens Street in SoHo to its transition and expansion to Chelsea London the Upper East Side and Hong Kong this book captures David Zwirner's devotion to its inimitable roster of artists and estates The heart of the publication is a wide ranging dynamic selection of the gallery's standout exhibitions in many cases handpicked by David Zwirner himself Many of these exhibitions highlight the countless works that ended up in major museum and private collections around the world Also featured is an extensive gallery history that details all of the exhibitions by every artist and estate presented at David Zwirner accompanied by archival imagery With contributions by Richard Shiff and Robert Storr as well as a foreword by David Zwirner this publication offers rare insights into the growth of a commercial gallery through its long term commitment to artists Border Wall Aesthetics Elisa Ganivet, 2019-09-24 30 years after the fall of the Berlin Wall we live in a time of globalization and free trade Nevertheless 70 new border walls have been built in this period put together they would cover the total circumference of the Earth While governments offer manifold justifications for building these separation barriers they invariably attract the attention of artists Is it merely the lure of transgression however that attracts them or is there a deeper significance in the artistic encounter with border walls And which artistic strategies do these artists employ to approach them In order to address these questions Lisa Ganivet revisits the history of border wall aesthetics and compares more recent border related works by 100 artists including Joseph Beuys Berlin Banksy Israel Palestine and Frida Kahlo Mexico US Through art and thus beyond art we understand the flaws and shortcomings of supposedly well oiled systems With a preface by Elisabeth Vallet The Perfect Prey Jeroen Smit, 2010-01-07 On 9 October 2007 the Royal Bank of Scotland RBS celebrated its leading role in the biggest deal in banking history a record 71 billion euros for Dutch bank ABN Amro Searching for an immediate profit the victors dismantled ABN Amro and Holland's number one bank ceased to exist Shareholders and management enjoyed the spoils and the Netherlands lost the bank that had been at the heart of their economy for 183 years But the profits were an illusion they simply weren't there One year later RBS had been forced into the largest rights issue in British corporate history underwritten by the Government So why was ABN Amro so toxic On the basis of more than 120 conversations with the most important individuals involved Jeroen Smit reconstructs the downfall of a Dutch institution a bank whose rotten core was so disguised by paper profits of billions every year In little more than a decade one of Europe's largest longest established banks went from powerful predator to the perfect prey

Truth Moon Kay Freeman, 2023-04-05 It may be Vegas but the odds of being attacked by your boss and outlaw bikers on the same night slim My boss I should have seen coming Thanks to the life I left behind I know an abuser when I see one and it was just a matter of time until he found out I ve been lying As for The Knights of Steel MC the only way to keep them quiet was to go with them except the club president s obsession with me goes beyond their escort service and BDMS clients I bet my life on it I can t trust anyone especially not my handler He s running from his past too and his infatuation scares me for a different reason All I know is that if I want my freedom I ll need to double down and guard my heart as closely as my body Art in Mind Ernst van Alphen,2005-03-10 Art has the power to affect our thinking changing not only the way we view and interact with the world but also how we create it Art can be considered as a commanding force with the capacity to shape our intellect and intervene in our lives Art is a historical agent or a cultural creator that propels thought and experience forward The author demonstrates that art serves a socially constructive function by actually experimenting with the parameters of thought employing work from artists as Picasso Watteau Bacon Dumas and Matthew Barney Art confronts viewers with the pain points of cultural experience and thereby transforms the ways in which human existence is conceived New York Magazine ,1994-06-06 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Visual Imagery and Human Rights Practice Sandra Ristovska,Monroe Price,2018-11-19 Visual Imagery and Human Rights Practice examines the interplay between images and human rights addressing how when and to what ends visuals are becoming a more central means through which human rights claims receive recognition and restitution The collection argues that accounting for how images work on their own terms is an ever more important epistemological project for fostering the imaginative scope of human rights and its purchase on reality Interdisciplinary in nature this timely volume brings together voices of scholars and practitioners from around the world making a valuable contribution to the study of media and human rights while tackling the growing role of visuals across cultural social political and legal structures Breaking Down the Barriers Richard Cork,2003-01-01 Item consists of collected criticism and essays on art in Britain written in the 1990 s for The Times Slow Painting Helen Westgeest,2020-10-29 The abundance of images in our everyday lives and the speed at which they are consumed seems to have left us unable to critique them To rectify this situation artists such as Daniel Richter Jaune Quick to See Smith and Artur Zmijewski have demonstrated that painting is brilliantly equipped to produce slow images that enable encourage and reward reflection In this book Helen Westgeest attempts to understand how various forms of slow painting can be used as tools to interrogate the visual mediations we encounter daily Painting was expected to disappear in the digital age but through interactive painting performances and painting like manipulated photographs and videos Westgeest shows how photography video and new media art have themselves developed the visual strategies that painting had already mastered Moreover the fleeting nature of digital mass media appears to have unlocked a desire for more physically stable and enduring pictures like paintings Slow Painting charts how in a world where the constant quest for speed can leave us exhausted the appeal of this slower medium has only grown The Choreographic Jenn Joy,2014-10-17 An investigation of dance and choreography that views them not only as artistic strategies but also as intrinsically theoretical and critical practices The choreographic stages a conversation in which artwork is not only looked at but looks back it is about contact that touches even across distance The choreographic moves between the corporeal and cerebral to tell the stories of these encounters as dance trespasses into the discourse and disciplines of visual art and philosophy through a series of stutters steps trembles and spasms In The Choreographic Jenn Joy examines dance and choreography not only as artistic strategies and disciplines but also as intrinsically theoretical and critical practices She investigates artists in dialogue with philosophy describing a movement of conceptual choreography that flourishes in New York and on the festival circuit Joy offers close readings of a series of experimental works arguing for the choreographic as an alternative model of aesthetics She explores constellations of works artists writers philosophers and dancers in conversation with theories of gesture language desire and history She choreographs a revelatory narrative in which Walter Benjamin Pina Bausch Francis Al s and Cormac McCarthy dance together she traces the feminist and queer force toward desire through the choreography of DD Dorvillier Heather Kravas Meg Stuart La Ribot Miguel Gutierrez luciana achugar and others she maps new forms of communicability and pedagogy and she casts science fiction writers Samuel R Delany and Kim Stanley Robinson as perceptual avatars and dance partners for Ralph Lemon Marianne Vitali James Foster and Janet Cardiff and George Bures Miller Constructing an expanded notion of the choreographic Joy explores how choreography as critical concept and practice attunes us to a more productively uncertain precarious and ecstatic understanding of aesthetics and art making
