Married Love Spicy Tales:

Stories by Meir Blinkin Meir Blinkin, 2012-02-01 Now available for the first time to the English speaking public the captivating short stories of master storyteller Meir Blinkin are the charming prose equivalents of the film Hester Street. These delightful and touching stories also give an authentic account of the Jewish immigrant experience at the turn of the century. This collection is introduced by the renowned Yiddish scholar Ruth R. Wisse, professor of Yiddish literature at McGill University and co-author with Irving Howe of Tales of Sholem Aleichem. Her introduction provides bibliographical information on Meir Blinkin and places his work in the context of the development of Yiddish literature. Born in the same small town as Sholem Aleichem, Meir Blinkin was driven by poverty and anti-Semitism to America. He arrived in New York in 1904 at the age of 25, one of the 105,000 Jews to reach America that year. At his untimely death eleven years later, Blinkin was well known to his Jewish American contemporaries as one of their finest prose writers, a leader of the Yunge literary movement and a frequent contributor to the major Yiddish periodicals. Meir Blinkin's stories tell us what life was like in the immigrant community, conveying a strong sense of the stresses and changes to be endured. These stories not only illuminate the social conditions of the times but provide deft psychological analyses of troubled immigrants with their conflicting claims of loyalty to the secular world and Jewish orthodoxy. Blinkin is also a master at the evocation of mood, of psychic tensions and the claustrophobia of tenement life. In the best traditions of mimetic realism, he captures the vividly demotic speech of his characters with their Anglicisms and malapropisms. This unique collection of stories helps preserve the vibrant immigrant world. A tribal memory man, Meir Blinkin saves us from cultural amnesia. NANTUCKET LOVE STORIES Jim

Patrick, 2014-08-22 The sky swirled angrily, terrifyingly reaching with skeletal fingers to pluck her from her wretched existence. Phebe fell to her knees and prayed, prayed for an answer to this Apocalypse which was surely directed at her alone. And when at last she found the courage to look up, it became clear what God wanted of her. She had suffered enough. She had endured loneliness enough. She had done her penance for whatever sin she had committed. God would shed his mercy on her at last. Phebe knew what his wish for her was and she was prepared to comply. A Marriage for Miranda Natalie

Holly, 2018-05-17 Miranda Desperate after the passing of my parents, I hoped to be matched for marriage at Mrs Broderick's School for Traditional Wives. Instead, I ended up happily employed as the culinary teacher for the school, with Mrs Broderick acting as my surrogate mother. I know she will match me when she feels I am ready. Colin As a movie producer, I am tired of waif models and actresses. I'm looking for a real woman who wants the kind of marriage that includes draping herself over my lap for some old-fashioned discipline when she's been naughty. I'm not sure, but I think the teacher giving me a tour of the school might be the one. If the heated look she's giving me as I inspect the discipline tools is any indication, I think we may be the perfect match. Publisher's Note This steamy romance contains elements of domestic discipline. The Preacher's Wife
