Dear _____ :

Per our lease agreement, your move-out notice must be received 30 days prior to vacating.

The general rule—per our contract—is that if we are unable to lease the residence in the period that you are still under contract, you are obligated to pay that rent. Also, once you have moved out from the residence, it will be inspected for cleanliness and damage. If the residence is left in good condition, your security deposit will be returned to you in full—provided you do not owe back rent or miscellaneous expenses. In such cases, the monies will go toward these expenses, and the difference will be released to you.

Please review the Move-Out Checklist, which you received when you moved in—give each item your personal attention before departing.

Please contact the utility services, and phone and cable companies to disconnect all services in your name to avoid being billed for unneeded services.

It has been wonderful having you as a tenant and we wish you many years of happiness in your new residence.

Sincerely,

Signature
