

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Intended use and unintended use

This AEG appliance is intended to be used to store, heat and provide drinking water. The appliance should only be used in household and similar environments, such as:

- In shops, offices and other similar working environments;
- In farm houses;
- By clients in hotels, motels and other residential type environments;
- In bed and breakfast type environments.

The appliance should not be used:

- For commercial or industrial purposes;
- In vehicles or on board ships or aircrafts;
- In locations with the presence of a corrosive or explosive atmosphere;
- For medical purposes;

The appliance may only be used according to the instructions as described in this manual. All use other than described in this manual is seen as unintended use.

1.2 General working principle

This AEG appliance stores, heats and provides boiling drinking water in addition to cold and warm water.

To supply boiling water, cold water flows from the cold water supply to the boiler, where it is heated to 100 °C. From the boiler the boiling water flows to the tap.

The cold water also flows from the cold water supply directly to the cold water inlet on the tap.

There are two ways to provide the tap with warm water:

- Warm water can be supplied by connecting the warm water supply, if available, to the warm water inlet on the tap. This situation is named the solo configuration.
- Cold water and boiling water from the boiler can be mixed with the mixing valve. The mixed water outlet of the mixing valve can be connected to the warm water inlet on the tap. This situation is named the combi configuration.

Slips of the Mind Jennifer Soong, 2025-04-07 An audacious account of what happens when forgetting becomes a way of writing and writing becomes a way of forgetting In Slips of the Mind poet and critic Jennifer Soong turns away from forgetting's long standing associations with suppression privation and error to argue that the absence or failure of memory has often functioned as a generative creative principle Exploring forgetting not as the mere rejection of a literary past or a form of negative poetics Soong puts to the test its very aesthetic meaning What new structures forms of desires styles and long and short feelings do lapses in time allow What is oblivion's relationship to composition And how does the twentieth century poet come to figure as the quintessential embodiment of such questions Soong uncovers forgetting's influence on Gertrude Stein Lyn Hejinian Tan Lin Harryette Mullen Lissa Wolsak and New York School poets John Ashbery James Schuyler Bernadette Mayer and Ted Berrigan among others She reveals that forgetting's shapeshifting produces differences in poetic genre interest and degrees of intentionality and that such malleability is part of forgetting's nature Most provocatively Soong shows how losing track of things leaving them behind or finding them already gone resists overdetermination and causality in the name of surprise as poets leverage forgetting in order to replace identity with style Slips of the Mind is the kind of literary criticism that will reward all readers of modern and contemporary poetry creatures with specific psychological makeups This book takes a bottom up approach beginning at the microscopic level of agency and practical reason and leading to the justificatory framework of authority The book argues that an understanding of the nature of legal normativity involves an understanding of the nature and structure of practical reason in the context of the law and advances the idea that legal authority and normativity are intertwined This point can be summarised thus if we are able to understand both how the agent exercises his or her practical reason under legal directives and commands and how the agent engages his or her practical reason by following legal rules grounded on reasons for actions as good making characteristics then we can fully grasp the nature of legal authority and legal normativity Using the philosophies of action enshrined in the works of Elisabeth Anscombe Aristotle and Thomas Aquinas the study explains practical reason as diachronic future directed intention in action and argues that this conception illuminates the structure of practical reason of the legal rules addressees The account is comprehensive and enables us to distinguish authoritative and normative legal rules in just and good legal systems from apparent authoritative and normative legal rules of evil legal systems At the heart of the book is the methodological view of a practical turn to elucidate the nature of legal normativity and authority
