

Speech Outline For Public Speaking

Title of your speech: Securing yourself online

Purpose of your speech: to inform audience about online risks and how to prevent them.

I. INTRODUCTION

A. Your attention grabber.

You're at risk. All of us are at risk, and I'm not talking about STDs, global warming or terrorism. I'm talking about your life online. You're at risk of having your computer taken over so that perfect strangers can read your email, access your bank accounts, pilfer your credit card numbers and even steal your identity.

B. Your credibility and authority:

I've seen this over and over again at my summer job as a computer technician at a nationwide computer store: you wouldn't believe how many computers are compromised and infected.

C. Audience relevance

As college students, we're particularly vulnerable because we spend so much time online. According to David Tattersall - manager of Wisconsin consumer office of privacy protection, 32% of all identity theft claims are filed by people between the ages of 18 and 29 years old. That's the largest percentage of any age group.

D. Thesis statement + Preview main points

Today, I'd like to explain three additional steps that experts recommend for online security: (1) using strong passwords, (2) using secure connections and (3) double-checking links before clicking on them.

II. BODY

A. First Point: Use strong password

1. First Subpoint: Criteria for a strong password

- At least 10-15 characters
- Upper case, lower case letter
- Number
- Punctuation

2. Second sub-point: Example

According to Microsoft's online guide to creating strong passwords when your passwords contain long combinations of seemingly random letters, numbers and punctuation your security increases exponentially meaning that a password like the one I showed you is literally billions of times more secure than something short and ordinary like hot dog or college.

[Transition]: In addition to having a strong password, you should...
