The Complete Idiot's Guide to Getting Along with Difficult People Brandon Toropov, 1997 Gives suggestions for dealing with inappropriate workplace behavior poor customer service and tough negotiators Sticky Cases in Higher Education Leadership Laurie Bobley, Alan Sebel, Sabra Brock, 2024-11-25 Case studies serve as powerful tools because they bridge theory and practice enhance decision making skills and prepare individuals for real world challenges There is a shortage of case study resources specifically focused on the ongoing development of leaders for positions in higher education Sticky Cases in Higher Education Leadership provides invaluable insights and lessons to help aspiring higher education leaders and experienced administrators navigate the complex landscape of academic leadership Authored by faculty and administrators in various roles the cases represent real world incidents and situations that are faced by higher education leaders Each case discusses a real world conflict or challenge presented in an open ended format to encourage thoughtful independent or collaborative analysis Readers individually or collaboratively consider the situation or incident and propose solutions or alternative approaches The primary purpose of the book is to serve as a valuable teaching tool for universities offering programs in higher education leadership development It can be used in doctoral and master's degree programs focused on higher education leadership and management It will also benefit colleges and universities that have or are planning to initiate leadership development programs to prepare faculty for advancement into administrative roles Additionally the book will have utility for institutions engaged in succession planning The cases enrich the experience of program participants and are easily aligned with desired learning outcomes With a focus on planning and institutional renewal by national accreditors such as the Middle States Commission on Higher Education this book fills a critical need for case based resources to support the development of higher education leaders Perfect for courses such as Leading Across Cultures Leadership in Educational Contexts and Systems Contemporary Issues in Higher Education Leadership Management and Supervision in Higher Education Leading Change and Education Policy and Planning Centering Humanism in STEM Education Bryan Dewsbury, Susannah McGowan, Sheila S. Jaswal, Desiree Forsythe, 2024-09-24 Research demonstrates that STEM disciplines perpetuate a history of exclusion particularly for students with marginalized identities This poses problems particularly when science permeates every aspect of contemporary American life Institutions repeated failures to disrupt systemic oppression in STEM has led to a mostly white cisgender and male scientific workforce replete with implicit and or explicit biases Education holds one pathway to disrupt systemic linkages of STEM oppression from society to the classroom Maintaining views on science as inherently objective isolates it from the world in which it is performed STEM education must move beyond the transactional approaches to transformative environments manifesting respect for students social and educational capital We must create a STEM environment in which students with marginalized identities feel respected listened to and valued We must assist students in understanding how their positionality privilege and power both historically and currently impacts their meaning making and understanding of STEM
