North American and European Perspectives on Sustainability in Higher Education Walter Leal Filho,Julie Newman,Amanda Lange Salvia,Láis Viera Trevisan,Laura Corazza,2025-04-02 The scientific cultural and diplomatic relations between Europe and its partners in North America are very strong From a scientific point of view this long standing cooperation has taken place across a wide range of areas They include the field of sustainability where North America and Europe are working hand in hand seeking solutions to the many regional and global problems currently faced Against this backdrop and in order to facilitate a broad discussion on the contribution of higher education institutions from both sides of the Atlantic towards a more sustainable future this book is being produced The book gathers inputs from universities and research organizations on the one hand but also from companies and enterprises on the other from Europe and North America working on matters related to sustainable development in a higher education context It also provides a platform for the dissemination of information on the latest initiatives paving the way for technology transfer and networking Furthermore the book intends to provide a fertile basis upon which European and North American organizations may cooperate more closely in this key area Last but not least a further aim of the book is to present methodological approaches and experiences deriving from case studies and projects which aim to show how sustainability in North America and in Europe may be enhanced in practice Universities and the Sustainable Development Future Peter H. Koehn, Juha I. Uitto, 2017-04-07 Since the mid 1970s a series of international declarations that link environment and sustainable development to all aspects of higher learning have been endorsed and signed by universities around the world Although university involvement in sustainable development research and outreach has increased substantially systematic learning from higher education engagements has been limited Universities and the Sustainable Development Future offers institutions of higher learning around the world practical guidelines that can be applied contextually to produce credible evidence regarding the outcome and impact of their teaching research and transnational partnering activities Drawing on innovative applications of lessons from experience with international development cooperation this book demonstrates the utility of a flexible framework that will inspire substantial improvements in the ways universities evaluate and improve their sustainable development undertakings aimed at promoting Agenda 2030 This book promotes an inclusive evaluation framework that will allow universities to illuminate sustainable development outcomes and it provides a cutting edge resource for students scholars and policy makers with an interest in sustainable development climate change and evaluation challenges Theory and Practice in Adult Literacy, Learning and Social Change Anna Robinson-Pant, Catherine Kell, 2025-08-21 Offering new theoretical empirical and methodological perspectives on adult literacy lifelong learning and social change this book challenges traditional debates on adult literacy and development The volume brings together debates and research from the Global South and Global North and is original in moving beyond descriptive accounts of adult literacy programmes classrooms and a focus on best practice It provides both a historical perspective on this field as well as looking forward to future research and pedagogical directions By broadening from an international development to a social change perspective this book offers an alternative starting point Unlike development social transformation does not set a specific agenda nor assume a certain endpoint The authors set out to investigate the why and how of the assumed connections between adult learning literacy and social change contributing a deeper understanding into the complex and often unpredictable processes involved As well as focusing on literacy learning in classrooms and educational programmes the book explores literacy practices and adult learning in everyday spaces including social movements religious poetry and community initiatives Case studies from different cultural contexts introduce alternative theoretical lenses like the concept of the enacted body to explore a woman's experience of learning and social change in Nepal or investigating how religious poetry shared between generations in Iran could be working against social change ECMLG 2018 14th European Conference on Management, Leadership and Governance Dr. Ing.
