

A Brief Primer to Citing Sources in APA Style

There are two kinds of source citing that you must do in a paper: in-text citations and last-page references. Let's cover them one at a time:

In-Text Citations

Whether you use an author's exact words (quotation) or put the information in your own words (summary), you must provide an in-text citation to indicate where the information or words came from.

Direct Quotation

Original Text:

"Deaths from colon cancer occur twice as often in women as in men, but the media have made it seem that breast cancer is the number one killer of women."

Quotation in Your Paper:

(APA Style)

According to Adele (1999), "Deaths from colon cancer occur twice as often in women as in men, but the media have made it seem that breast cancer is the number one killer of women" (p. 12).

Please notice three things:

1. A phrase like "According to ..." is always used to introduce a direct quote.
2. The author's last name together with (1999) is an in-text citation and refers to a source listed alphabetically on the last page of your paper.
3. The period goes after the parenthesis at the end of the sentence.

Your Own Words

Original Text:

"Deaths from colon cancer occur twice as often in women as in men, but the media has made it seem that breast cancer is the number one killer of women."

Your Words in Your Paper:

(APA Style)

Although twice as many women die from colon cancer as men, the media choose to focus on breast cancer as the main threat to women (Adele, 1999).
