Lejeune, 2009-04-30 On Diary is the second collection in English of the groundbreaking and profoundly influential work of one of the best known and provocative theorists of autobiography and diary. Ranging from the diary's historical origins to its pervasive presence on the Internet from the spiritual journey of the sixteenth century to the diary of Anne Frank and from the materials and methods of diary writing to the question of how diaries end, these essays display Philippe Lejeune's expertise, eloquence, passion, and humor as a commentator on the functions, practices, and significance of keeping or reading a diary. Lejeune is a leading European critic and theorist of diary and autobiography. His landmark essay The Autobiographical Pact has shaped life writing studies for more than thirty years, and his many books and essays have repeatedly opened up new vistas for scholarship. As Michael Riffaterre notes, Lejeune's work on autobiography is the most original, powerful, effective approach to a difficult subject. His style is very personal and lively. It grabs the reader as scholarship rarely does. Lejeune's erudition and methodology are impeccable. Two substantial introductory essays by Jeremy Popkin and Julie Rak place Lejeune's work within its critical and theoretical traditions and comment on his central importance within the fields of life writing, literary genetic studies, and cultural studies.

Ventures in Discipleship John R. Martin, 1998-10-06 This unique book promises to be profoundly useful for all who take it seriously. Merely to talk about what we should be doing is surely one form of cheap grace. The book provides concrete steps for making discipleship a way of life, not just a way of talk. Ventures in Discipleship is extraordinarily practical, with its uncommon mix of doctrine and application, reflection and action, theological probing and challenge to commitment, basic discipleship and a broad range of specific disciplines. No group of believers can use this book with serious intent and fail to move closer to real kingdom living, to genuine following of Jesus Christ.

A Joyfully Serious Man Matteo Bortolini, 2025-11-18 The brilliant but turbulent life of a public intellectual who transformed the social sciences. Robert Bellah (1927-2013) was one of the most influential social scientists of the twentieth century. Trained as a sociologist, he crossed disciplinary boundaries in pursuit of a greater comprehension of religion as both a cultural phenomenon and a way to fathom the depths of the human condition. A Joyfully Serious Man is the definitive biography of this towering figure in modern intellectual life and a revelatory portrait of a man who led an adventurous yet turbulent life.

Drawing on Bellah's personal papers as well as in depth interviews with those who knew him Matteo Bortolini tells the story of an extraordinary scholarly career and an eventful and tempestuous life He describes Bellah's exile from the United States during the hysteria of the McCarthy years his crushing personal tragedies and his experiments with sexuality Bellah understood religion as a mysterious human institution that brings together the scattered pieces of individual and collective experiences Bortolini shows how Bellah championed intellectual openness and innovation through his relentless opposition to any notion of secularization as a decline of religion and his ideas about the enduring tensions between individualism and community in American society Based on nearly two decades of research A Joyfully Serious Man is a revelatory chronicle of a leading public intellectual who was both a transformative thinker and a restless passionate seeker

The Last of My Many Friendships Rev. Msgr. Francis A. Galles, 2017-09-14 If Jesus had lived to my age 90 years I think he might have written his autobiography Unfortunately however he was killed by those he had come to save Fortunately four of his disciples wrote up the story of his life and gave us the four Gospels which are a marvelous account of his life and his teaching We are tremendously indebted to Matthew Mark Luke and John who have given us an inspired account of all that Jesus did and taught Recognizing the great value that a biography or autobiography may have I decided to write and publish my autobiography From a thirty day retreat I made back in 1977 I learned that an autobiography may not only be a blessing to the readers of it but also to the author The healing I experienced through the 800 pages I wrote at that time and shared with my director convinced me that the writing of an autobiography can be a blessing to the author perhaps more than to later readers I am so convinced of the benefit the author of an autobiography may receive that I would encourage parents and teachers to teach children perhaps by the age of eight or ten to begin to write a diary or journal Very helpful to me in writing my autobiography was the practice I began about 1949 When I was 22 years old of keeping a journal or appointment book in which I kept a record of all the persons I met or places where I travelled and things I saw and reflections that seemed to be significant In the course of writing my autobiography I became more aware of the many people who have had a significant role in my life and development More important I have discovered at a deeper level how important in my life has been the friendship I have developed with Jesus I am convinced that Jesus has had a very important part in bringing into my life the many people who have touched and transformed my life That is why I consider Jesus the first and greatest of all my friends I heartily agree with St Paul when he wrote to the Corinthians Brothers you are among those called Consider your situation Not many of you are wise as men account wisdom not many are influential and surely not many are well born God chose those whom the world considers absurd to shame the wise he singled out the weak of this world to shame the strong He chose the world's lowborn and despised those who count for nothing to reduce to nothing those who were something so that mankind can do no boasting before God God it is who has given you life in Christ Jesus He has made him our wisdom and also our justice our sanctification and our redemption This is just as you find it written Let him who would boast boast in the Lord
