

The Inquisitor's Tale Summary and Study Guide

The story begins in a medieval French inn, where a mysterious narrator is asking questions about the three mysterious outlaw children with magical powers and their holy dog.

Nearly everyone in this tavern has a part of the story to tell, and the book develops through different storytellers' perspectives. The children are believed to be saints. The first of them, Jeanne, is a peasant with the power of prophecy; her dog, Gwenforte, returned from the dead and is a local saint. The second, William, is an oblate (a monk-in-training), the illegitimate son of a lord and an unknown North African woman, and miraculously huge and strong. The third, Jacob, is a Jewish boy whose parents died in a hateful Christian raid on their village; he has healing powers.

Believing Jeanne to be a witch and Gwenforte a pagan idol, knights ride out to kill her. A mysterious monk named Michelangelo de Bologna is pursuing Jeanne. She escapes Michelangelo, but the knights capture her and intend to take her to the cathedral city of Saint-Denis for judgement and execution.

William is expelled from his monastery for shattering a stone bench in anger over a senior monk's bigotry. His abbot sends him to Saint-Denis to study and gives him a load of sacred books.

Jacob escapes from the destruction of his village after miraculously healing an injured man. He can't find his parents, but he remembers that they told him to go find his cousin Yehuda in Saint-Denis. He runs into the other two children at an inn, where the knights have captured Jeanne.
