The 9.5mm Vintage Film Encyclopaedia Patrick Moules, 2020-07-28 Written in both English and French The 9.5mm Vintage Film Encyclopaedia provides a single volume comprehensive catalogue of all known 9.5mm film releases including Films Comprising 12 460 individual entries this A Z reference index provides the main listing for each film and its origin where known along with additional information including cast and crew and cross references to other relevant material People This index of all known actors and film crew comprising over 12 000 names provides a listing which is cross referenced to the main entry for each original film they worked on Numbers Path Baby Path scope and other distributors catalogue numbers film length release dates where known and the series in which the films were organised are set out in detail With a foreword from eminent film historian and filmmaker Keith Brownlow this extensively researched text explains the importance of the 9.5mm film from its beginnings in the early 1920s to becoming synonymous with Home Cinema throughout Europe Readers will also find a brief technical explanation on how 9.5mm films were produced along with relevant images The Archives Aa. Vv., 2015-04-21 T00:00:00+02:00 The digital age has witnessed the development of a new kind of archive immaterial living and moving largely user generated and conceived for managing a wide variety of audio visual materials besides traditional films and videos The first part of this anthology investigates the ways in which media forms like web documentaries video art and digital art web series amateur productions and also mobile films can be stored and preserved within the new digital repositories The second part focuses on archival and preservation practices of the video game This approach understands the archive not simply as a memory box but as a fully contemporary practice that locates new media objects in the present and acknowledges their changing cultural and social configurations The democratic often immaterial living mobile nature of contemporary archives forces us to question whether or not the traditional notion of the archive still has a heuristic value Or if it would be perhaps better to reject any conventional idea of archive and embrace the notion of an archive Jean Cocteau James S. Williams, 2019-01-31 This is a comprehensive original and accessible account of all aspects of Jean Cocteau's work in the cinema It is the first major study in English to appear for over forty years and casts new light on Cocteau's most celebrated films as well as those often neglected or little known Jean Cocteau is not only one of French cinema's greatest and most influential auteurs whose work covered all the major genres but also an experimenter collaborator theorist and all round ambassador of film This lucid account provides a complete introduction to Cocteau's cinematic project in the context of his entire oeuvre detailed analysis of individual films and a thematic engagement with all his cinema from a range of interdisciplinary perspectives The Cocteau that emerges is at once a materialist filmmaker and visionary who is committed to realism in all its guises and reveals the wonder and mystery of what he called the cinematograph Cinema and Art as Archive Aa. Vv., 2015-03-11 T00:00:00+01:00 As Jacques Derrida wrote in 1995 while considering Archive Fever nothing is less reliable or less clear today than the word archive Nevertheless the historic cultural dimension of the contemporary discursive practices in cinema and art develops in the semantic openendedness of the term in the repositioning of the idea of archive The individual disciplines involved in one such field history of cinema and art theory of cinema and art aesthetics semiotics philology etc begin to open up to questioning the notion of archive even in negative in other words what after Michel Foucault the archive is not or does not seem to be The archive is not the library of libraries or encyclopedia it is not memory it is not museum it is not a database In recent years the attention focused on such ideas has not so much highlighted the impulses turns and specific forms of art art archive as it has revealed in many ways how the archive concerns us in the interrelation of aesthetic political ethical and legal levels among various disciplinary fields

Everything Is Cinema Richard Brody, 2008-05-13 From New Yorker film critic Richard Brody Everything Is Cinema The Working Life of Jean Luc Godard presents a serious minded and meticulously detailed account of the lifelong artistic journey of one of the most influential filmmakers of our age The New York Times When Jean Luc Godard wed the ideals of filmmaking to the realities of autobiography and current events he changed the nature of cinema Unlike any earlier films Godard s work shifts fluidly from fiction to documentary from criticism to art The man himself also projects shifting images cultural hero fierce loner shrewd businessman Hailed by filmmakers as a if not the key influence on cinema Godard has entered the modern canon a figure as mysterious as he is indispensable In Everything Is Cinema critic Richard Brody has amassed hundreds of interviews to demystify the elusive director and his work Paying as much attention to Godard s technical inventions as to the political forces of the postwar world Brody traces an arc from the director s early critical writing through his popular success with Breathless to the grand vision of his later years He vividly depicts Godard s wealthy conservative family his fluid politics and his tumultuous dealings with women and fellow New Wave filmmakers Everything Is Cinema confirms Godard s greatness and shows decisively that his films have left their mark on screens everywhere

Maurice Pialat Marja Warehime, 2013-07-19 One of the most gifted directors of the post New Wave Maurice Pialat is frequently compared to such legendary filmmakers as Jean Renoir and Robert Bresson A quintessentially realist filmmaker who like Bresson was also trained as a painter Pialat s particular form of realism influenced an entire generation of young filmmakers in the 1990s This volume is the first book length study of Pialat s cinema in English It provides an introduction to a complex and difficult director who saw himself as a marginal and marginalised filmmaker but whose films are deeply rooted in French society and culture Pialat was long considered the only major filmmaker to portray la France profonde the heart of France the people who as he put it take the subway Taken as a whole Pialat s work can be seen both as an oblique autobiography and the portrait of a fundamental institution the family over several generations

Two Bicycles Jerry White, 2013-08-01 Jean Luc Godard and Anne Marie Mi ville are among the most important postwar filmmakers they have worked across forms across media and across countries This book the first to be devoted specifically to the work they did together examines the way they expanded the possibilities of cinema by using cutting edge video equipment in a constant search for a new kind of filmmaking Two Bicycles examines all of the films videos and television works that the two did together and moves slowly across France and Switzerland with detours in Quebec Mozambique and Palestine Their amazingly varied body of work includes a twelve hour television series some experimental videos an acclaimed feature film with Isabelle Huppert a cigarette commercial and much else Overall the book shows the degree to which this work departs radically from the legacy of the French New Wave and in many ways shows signs of having been formed by the distinct culture of Switzerland to which Godard and Mi ville returned in the 1970s to set up their atelier Sonimage Two Bicycles offers a chance to explore a body of work that is as unique and demanding as it is rich and revelatory Godard and Mi ville have worked together for four decades but have never seemed more relevant

Animal Life and the Moving Image Michael Lawrence, Laura McMahon, 2019-07-25 From the proto cinematic sequencing of animal motion in the nineteenth century to the ubiquity of animal videos online the histories of animal life and the moving image are enigmatically interlocked Animal Life and the Moving Image is the first collection of essays to offer a sustained focus on the relations between screen cultures and non human animals The volume brings together some of the most important and influential writers working on the non human animal s significance for cultures and theories of the moving image It offers innovative analyses of the representation of animals across a wide range of documentary fiction mainstream and avant garde practices from early cinema to contemporary user generated media Individual chapters consider King Kong The Birds The Misfits The Cove Grizzly Man and Microcosmos the work of Sergei Eisenstein Robert Bresson Malcolm Le Grice Peter Greenaway Carolee Schneemann and Isabella Rossellini and YouTube stars Christian the lion and Maru the cat

Amateur film Heather Norris Nicholson, 2019-01-04 Amateur film Meaning and practice 1927-77 plunges readers into the world of home movies making and reveals that behind popular perceptions of clichéd family scenes shakily shot at home or by the sea there is much more to discover Exploring who how where when and why amateur enthusiasts made and shared their films provides fascinating insights into an often misunderstood aspect of national visual history This study of how non professional filmmakers responded to the new possibilities of moving image places decades of cine use into a history of changing visual technologies that span from Edwardian visual toys to mobile phones Using northern cine club records interviews and amateur films the author reveals how film making practices ranged from family footage to highly crafted edited productions about local life and distant places made by enthusiasts who sought to educate inspire and entertain armchair audiences during the early decades of British television

Global Perspectives on Amateur Film Histories and Cultures Masha Salazkina, Enrique Fibla-Gutiérrez, 2021-01-05 For too long the field of amateur cinema has focused on North America and Europe In Global Perspectives on Amateur Film Histories and Cultures however editors Masha Salazkina and Enrique Fibla Gutiérrez fill the literature gap by extending that focus and increasing inclusivity Through carefully curated essays Salazkina and Fibla Gutiérrez bring wider meaning and significance to the discipline through their study of alternative cinema in new territories fueled by different historical and political circumstances innovative technologies and ambitious practitioners The essays in this volume work to realize the radical societal democratization that shows up in amateur cinema around the world In particular diverse contributors highlight the significance of amateur filmmaking the exhibition of amateur films the uses and availability of film technologies and the inventive and creative approaches of filmmakers and advocates of amateur film Together these essays shed new light on alternative cinema in a wide range of cities and countries where amateur films thrive in the shadow of commercial and conventional film industries
