Gantz,2012-10-05 House cleaning has been an innate human activity forever but only since the early 19th century have mechanical devices replaced the physical labor performed mostly by women Mechanical carpet sweepers were replaced by manual suction cleaners which in turn were replaced by electric vacuum cleaners in the early 20th century Innovative inventors who improved vacuum cleaners as electricity became commonly available made these advances possible Many early manufacturers failed but some such as Bissell Hoover Eureka and others became household names as they competed for global dominance with improved features performance and appearance This book describes the fascinating people who made this possible as well as the economic cultural and technological contexts of their times From obscure beginnings 200 years ago vacuum cleaners have become an integral part of modern household culture The Strategic Manager Harry

Sminia,2021-07-25 The Strategic Manager provides a comprehensive logical and applied insight in strategic management Unlike some more theory heavy texts this book focuses on how strategy works in everyday practice taking readers expectations and understanding beyond that of strategy as a matter of planning only It enables the reader to learn and reflect upon their practical skills and knowledge and critically evaluate the strategy process and their own strategic decision making The book is based around six different strategy theories individually presented and supplemented with useful lists of questions that encourage readers to become competent strategic thinkers This third edition has been fully updated throughout including fresh case studies and examples from across Asia Africa and South America that bridge theory with practice new strategy practice boxes considering the importance of cooperation and strategic alliances and reflective questions to aid understanding Essential reading for postgraduate students of strategic management MBA students and those in executive education this text will also be a useful tool for reflective managers trying to develop a better understanding Online resources include chapter by chapter PowerPoint slides Community Trade Mark Law Frank

Bøggild,Kolja Staunstrup,2015-12-23 The introduction in Europe in 1996 of the Community trade mark CTM brought into being a new and independent trade mark system with its own sources of law its own procedures and its own administrative and judicial bodies notably the Office for Harmonization in the Internal Market Trade Marks and Designs OHIM the agency designated to process applications for the registration of CTMs In 2011 OHIM for the first time received 100 000 applications in one and the same year which was also the year in which the one millionth application was filed Case law of the European Court of Justice ECJ and the European General Court EGC on the interpretation of the Trade Mark Regulation and the Trade Mark Directive is together with decisions of OHIM and its Boards of Appeals absolutely central to the understanding of Community trade mark law including the trade mark laws of Member States This book offers an in depth scrutiny categorization and analysis of this extensive body of case law Focusing on issues of practical relevance for practitioners the chapters cover such aspects of Community trade mark law as the following OHIM's procedure for registration the appeals system OHIM's Boards of Appeals the EGC and the ECJ trade mark strategies absolute and relative grounds for refusal three dimensional trade marks non registered national trade marks and registration in bad faith trade marks with a reputation acquired distinctiveness trade mark functions and use as a trade mark limitations of exclusivity nature and extent of genuine use grounds for revocation and invalidity transfer of trade marks and licensing national trade mark courts Also covered are the pending and proposed amendments to the Trade Mark Regulation and the Trade Mark Directive This book covers in depth the practical applications of this important and much used body of law It will be of enormous value and benefit to company lawyers attorneys trade mark attorneys and anyone else dealing with trade mark law whether on a Community level or nationally
