challenging times and coaching must re-articulate its values as the essential compass for navigating turbulent waters. In The Future of Coaching Hetty Einzig examines the role of coaching and leadership in the twenty-first century and sets out a compelling vision for its future. Drawing on experience gained over twenty-five years of coaching leaders in the corporate and public sectors in the UK and globally, she challenges the tenet of coaching neutrality. Rather than simply following the client agenda, she encourages coaches to see themselves as partners in courageous leadership and to work towards building an ethical, holistic, and networked coaching approach to help create businesses that serve society and our globalised world. The book asks essential questions of coaches working today: how can leaders and coaches become positive deviants and transform the rules of the game within cultures where denial and group think are rife? How can coaches work with the anxious and depressed, embracing the dark as well as the light? Are coaches prepared for the rise of Millennials, women leaders, and those over sixty? The Third Act, Einzig challenges the model of the Strong Leader in favour of Responsible leadership based on authentic strength, distributed power, and responsive thinking. And she shows how this vision of a transformed workplace is essential for the transformations society must undertake to reclaim a positive future. This thought-provoking collection of essays, designed to be read in any order, is enlightening and inspiring reading for coaches in practice and in training, HR and L D professionals, and for leaders everywhere.
