When the battery is finished charging, the status "Charging" changes to "ready".

When the battery is finished charging, you should be able to use it for about 10 hours before recharging.

You can also exchange the Government using the 4500 cells and your personal computer. But the 4500 is missing the more information.

The heart rate (HR) monitor should be worn closely on your skin just below the navel. It should be snug enough to stay in place during your workout. When positioned correctly, the Polar sensor begins measuring heart rate data automatically, and the heart rate won't change from fading or is pushed off. It's not as strict as heart rate lost away from another heart rate monitor until the Polar sensor begins measuring heart rate data.

1. Push one end of the string through the slot in the lowest wire number. Press the tail down.

2. Use both sensors on the back of the head rate monitor to create a strong connection between your pulse and the temperature.

2. Attach the strap to the other side of the head late monitor around your chest.
3. Tighten or loosen the strap as necessary.
