

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

DEFINITION

Learning objectives are explicit statements that describe what learners are expected to achieve or accomplish by the end of a course or instructional period. They provide a clear focus and guide instructional design, helping to drive teaching and learning strategies.

EXAMPLE

When writing learning objectives, ensure they are clear, specific, and measurable, describing what learners should be able to do or achieve by the end of the instruction. Use action verbs to indicate the desired behaviors or outcomes, such as "describe", "create", "analyze", and "evaluate."

Best Practices for Teaching Beginnings and Endings in the Psychology Major Dana Dunn,2010-01-12 Introductory and capstone experiences in the undergraduate psychology program are crucial ways to engage students in their major and psychology department impart realistic expectations and prepare them for life beyond college Providing the right orientation and capstone courses in psychology education is increasingly a concern of instructors department chairs program directors and deans and both types of courses have become important sources for gathering pre and post coursework assessment data for degree learning outcomes The strategies presented here have been designed to help educators examine issues around teaching the introductory or careers course and developing a psychology specific orientation program The authors also provide concrete suggestions for building capstone experiences designed to fit the needs of a department its pedagogical philosophy or the educational agenda of the college or university Undergraduate psychology curriculum designers and instructors can benefit from learning innovative and effective strategies for introducing the major to first year students and at graduation for bringing closure reinforcing the overall departmental learning outcomes and helping students apply their disciplinary knowledge in capstone experiences and post graduate life In this collection of articles psychology instructors involved in the improvement of teaching and learning review the research and share their own successes and challenges in the classroom Discussions include effective practices for helping students become acclimated to and engaged in the psychology major application of developmental knowledge and learning communities to course design and use of quality benchmarks to improve introductory and capstone courses Other chapters describe innovations in the design of stand alone courses and offer concrete advice on counseling psychology graduates about how to use what they have learned beyond their higher education experiences

Breaking Down the Wall

Margarita Espino Calderon, Maria G. Dove, Diane Staehr Fenner, Margo Gottlieb, Andrea Honigsfeld, Tonya Ward Singer, Shawn Slakk, Ivannia Soto, Debbie Zacarian, 2019-09-11 It was a dark and stormy night in Santa Barbara January 19 2017 The next day s inauguration drumroll played on the evening news Huddled around a table were nine Corwin authors and their publisher who together have devoted their careers to equity in education They couldn t change the weather they couldn t heal a fractured country but they did have the power to put their collective wisdom about EL education upon the page to ensure our multilingual learners reach their highest potential Proudly we introduce you now to the fruit of that effort Breaking Down the Wall Essential Shifts for English Learners Success In this first of a kind collaboration teachers and leaders whether in small towns or large urban centers finally have both the research and the practical strategies to take those first steps toward excellence in educating our culturally and linguistically diverse children It s a book to be celebrated because it means we can throw away the dark glasses of deficit based approaches and see children who come to school speaking a different home language for what they really are learners with tremendous assets The authors contributions are arranged in nine chapters that become nine tenets for teachers and administrators to use as calls to actions in their own efforts to realize our English learners potential 1 From Deficit Based to Asset Based 2 From Compliance to Excellence 3 From Watering Down to Challenging 4 From Isolation to Collaboration 5 From Silence to Conversation 6 From Language to Language Literacy and Content 7 From Assessment of Learning to Assessment for and as Learning 8 From Monolingualism to Multilingualism 9 From Nobody Cares to Everyone Every Community Cares Read this book the chapters speak to one another a melodic echo of expertise classroom vignettes and steps to take To shift the status quo is neither fast nor easy but there is a clear process and it s laid out here in Breaking Down the Wall To distill it into a single line would go something like this if we can assume mutual ownership if we can connect instruction to all children s personal social cultural and linguistic identities then all students will achieve
