Newton, 2022-01-17 What if murder wasn't a mystery For one young man it is always decided by a simple code of chance taught to him by his mentor a gruff truck driver named Petty who once took him under his wing Now a trucker himself the savant travels the quickest routes coast to coast through 1990s America listening to the Top 40 Countdown and holding the fate of those he encounters in the palm of his hand But are the rules there to allow the natural order to assert itself or to keep a traumatic past from feeding his dark impulses and spiraling him out of control A twisted thriller peppered with dark humor B H Newton's The Alternator is a lean mean story that just might put a wicked smile on your face This book is intended for a mature audience and is not recommended for readers under the age of 18 How to Back Up a Trailer Kurt Anderson, 2008-03-01 The Manual No Real Guy Should Be Without Motor oil beer and charcoal that's what real men are made of A real man should be able to swap out the car's spark plugs and change its oil as his freshly caught fish smokes on open flame all while shotgunning a beer For how to instructions on these and other equally manly activities you need How to Back Up a Trailer It's the ultimate guide to everything you better know how to do like rotate your car's tires and change its brake pads swing a bat like a homerun hitter build and light a campfire during a rainstorm install an electrical outlet in your home and tap a keg for the perfect beer flow Read it Learn it Live it With How to Back Up a Trailer you'll never have to stop and ask for directions again Local Literacies David Barton, Mary Hamilton, 2012-03-12 Local Literacies is a unique detailed study of the role of reading and writing in people's everyday lives By concentrating on a selection of people in a particular community in Lancaster England the authors analyse how they use literacy in their day to day lives It follows four people in detail examining how they use local media their participation in public life the role of literacy in family activities and in leisure pursuits Links are made between everyday learning and education The study is based on an ethnographic approach to studying everyday activities and is framed in the theory of literacy as a social practice This Routledge Linguistics Classic includes a new foreword by Deborah Brandt and a new framing chapter in which David Barton and Mary Hamilton look at the connections between local and global activities interfaces with institutional literacies and the growing significance of digital literacies in everyday life A seminal text Local Literacies provides an explicit usable methodology for both teachers and researchers and clear theorising around a set of six propositions Clearly written and engaging this is a deeply absorbing study and is essential reading for all those involved in literacy and literacy education Pigface Catherine Robinson, 2015-11-30

Noah is pretty happy at school he s in a friendly class he s got a best mate Jack and he s one of the youngest to be picked for the school football team Then a broken leg keeps him off school for several weeks and on his return there s been a mysterious change of atmosphere A new boy Basil has joined the class and everyone is fascinated by him The only person who seems to be immune to Basil s charms is class joke Bertie known as Pigface Try as he might Noah just can t slip back into his normal place it seems to have been usurped by Basil His only choice of partner in class at lunch in Games and at break is Pigface Forced to sample life as an outsider Noah has a choice make a desperate effort to get back into the inner circle or get to see life from Pigface s alternative viewpoint The Secret Life of Decisions Meena

Thuraisingham, 2017-03-02 Making decisions is a critical part of every executive s job However we know so little about the often subliminal processes that shape the decisions we make The Secret Life of Decisions exposes the unchallenged myths and distortions that impact our reasoning ability raising our awareness of the many traps we can fall into Meena

Thuraisingham and her collaborator Wolfgang Lehmacher have drawn from decades of work with leaders showing that even the most talented leaders and teams can end up making sub optimal decisions This is rarely because they had poor critical thinking faculties but rather because they did not pay enough attention to the often invisible traps hardwired into our thinking processes letting through only information that conforms with our current beliefs mental models and expectations This leaves many leaders and businesses exposed Rather than being the rational output of our reasoning abilities the authors show decision making to be a highly imprecise process As decision makers we come to the table armed with our own perspectives preferences filters heuristics and biases influenced by a broad range of social influences many operating subliminally The Secret Life of Decisions is an essential read for developing and seasoned executives who have to work through increasingly complex and high stakes decisions It treats choosing wisely and the thinking involved as a skill which as with many other skills can be improved with the guided practice and supporting tools provided here The journey however starts with awareness that comes from outing the secret forces that can sabotage the quality of our decisions BTEC
