Riswold, 2007-07-15 By them we have been carried away out of our own land as into a Babylonian captivity and despoiled of all our precious possessions Martin Luther 1520 Their goal is our deracination which is detachment from one's background as from homeland customs traditions Thus women and other Elemental creatures on this planet are rendered homeless cut off from knowledge of our Race's customs and traditions Mary Daly 1984 What is this land this world of which these two theologians are speaking Why do the two statements above sound similar in the authors longing for a true home for our own land And who is this them who carries us away and cuts us off Could it be possible that Martin Luther and Mary Daly different in almost every way are saying something similar Why do these key figures in the Christian theological tradition who come from different times places and politics engage in such a parallel task How is this possible This book examines a series of surprising parallels between two key reforming figures in the Christian theological tradition and suggests that the two are in fact engaged in the same task political theology Applying a new label to familiar theologians enables readers to see both of them as well as their reformations in a new light The sixteenth century Reformation and second wave feminism are viewed through the pioneering work of Luther and Daly here to further establish the political

Loewenstein,2012-12-06 Next to the Bible Shakespeare the French revolution and Napoleon ancient Rome is one of the most plowed through fields of historical experience One of the truly great periods of history Rome over the centuries deservedly has attracted the passionate attention of historians philologists and more recently archeologists Since Roman law constituted the source of the legal life of most of Western Europe the legal profession had a legitimate interest Veritable libraries have been built around the history of Rome In the past confined mostly to Italian German and French scholars the fascination with things Roman by now has spread to other civilized nations including the Anglo Saxon Among the contributors to our knowledge of ancient Rome are some of the great minds in history and law Our bibliography selective as necessarily it has to be records outstanding generalists as well as some of the numerous specialists that were helpful for our undertaking Why then another study of the Roman political civilization and one that at least measured by volume and effort is not altogether insubstantial And why has to be added one presented by an author who whatever his reputation in other fields ostensibly is an outsider of the classical discipline These are legitimate questions that should be honestly answered By training and avocation the author is a constitutional lawyer or rather a political scientist primarily interested in the operation of governmental institutions      Breakthroughs in Science Skills Nancy F. The Meaning of Protestant Theology Phillip Cary, 2019-06-18 This book offers a creative and illuminating discussion of Protestant theology Veteran teacher Phillip Cary explains how Luther's theology arose from the Christian tradition particularly from the spirituality of Augustine Luther departed from the Augustinian tradition and inaugurated distinctively Protestant theology when he identified the gospel that gives us Christ as its key concept More than any other theologian Luther succeeds in carrying out the Protestant intention of putting faith in the gospel of Christ alone Cary also explores the consequences of Luther's teachings as they unfold in the history of Protestantism

Authentic Dr. Rob Reimer, 2024-09-26 How do we develop a deep lasting intimacy with God One of the problems with being a Christ follower is that we can substitute religious expressions and religious behaviors for authentic experiences and encounters without even know we are doing it The longer we go to church the more we know the right words to say and the right things to do but we can easily say those words and do those things without transformational intimacy with Jesus We can start with significant transformational encounters with God and end up with dusty old religion In Authentic we will
