Independent Writing Activities Year 1 Recount:

Teaching and Researching Writing Ken Hyland, 2021-09-23 The new edition of Ken Hyland's text provides an authoritative guide to writing theory research and teaching. Emphasising the dynamic relationship between scholarship and pedagogy, it shows how research feeds into teaching practice. Teaching and Researching Writing introduces readers to key conceptual issues in the field today and reinforces their understanding with detailed cases, then offers tools for further investigating areas of interest. This is the essential resource for students of applied linguistics and language education to acquire and operationalise writing research theories, methods, findings and practices, as well as for scholars and practitioners looking to learn more about writing and literacy. New to the fourth edition: Added or expanded coverage of important topics such as translingualism, digital literacies and technologies, multimodal and social media writing, action research, teacher reflection, curriculum design, teaching young learners and discipline-specific and profession-specific writing. Updated throughout, including revision to case studies and classroom practices and discussion of Rhetorical Genre Studies, intercultural rhetoric and expertise. Reorganised References and Resources section for ease of use for students, researchers and teachers.

Creative Teaching: English in the Early Years and Primary Classroom Chris Horner, Victoria Ryf, 2007-06-11 Presenting a range of exciting activities that support the development of creative English lessons within the existing structures of the Foundation Curriculum and the National Curriculum, this book is packed full of interactive and creative teaching strategies, provides guidance on assessing creative work, highlights opportunities for creative literacy activities across the curriculum, covers ages 3-11.

Bookwise Sharon Parsons, 2002 Bookwise is a carefully graded reading scheme organized into five cross-curricular strands, encouraging links to other subjects. Comprising 16 fiction and ten non-fiction titles, the 25 books at each level span a two-year reading age and the three-tier levelling system within each level facilitates an accurate match of reading ability and text. The full-colour readers are accompanied by teacher's guides and resource sheets to help teachers get the most out of their guided reading and writing sessions.

Making Progress in Writing Eve Bearne, 2003-08-29 Children's achievements in writing lag behind their achievements in reading, speaking and listening. National tests are beginning to expose this gap, and inevitably it is raising concerns. The issue is not without controversy, but regardless of the politics of the situation, national progress in children's writing is both needed and possible. This new book from Eve Bearne makes a valuable contribution towards helping teachers close this gap. Uniquely, it follows the structure of the National Literacy Strategy whilst examining key areas such as bridging KS2 and KS3 writing and writing skills beyond
