Methodist Prayers Of Confession:

American Methodist Worship Karen B. Westerfield Tucker, 2001-03-08 American Methodist Worship is the most comprehensive history of worship among John Wesley's various American spiritual descendants that has ever been written. It will be a foundational book for anyone who wishes to understand how American Methodists have worshipped. Sacramental Life: This groundbreaking study will help to reshape the way that we think about early American Methodist worship and how it connects to more recent trends. The Journal of Religion Karen Westerfield Tucker's exhaustive examination of the history of American Methodist worship may indeed launch a new genre in liturgical historiography: denominational liturgical histories. The genius of this contribution is its comprehensiveness in examining for the first time the worship life of an American ecclesiological tradition. Doxology Just in Time! Prayers and Liturgies of Confession and Assurance Rev. Kenneth H. Carter JR., 2010-09-01 In a brief introductory chapter the author addresses the question of why we need to confess our sins and offers three reflections in response: Sin as Pride, Sin as Violation of Boundaries, Sin and the Possibility of Forgiveness. The book includes seventy prayers of confession and words of assurance with accompanying liturgies and music suggestions. Scripture and hymn indexes included. The prayers are offered in three sections: confession and pardon related to The Human Condition, The Holy Scriptures, The Liturgical Year. Weaving Prayer Into the Tapestry of Life pictures each of us as a weaver at a loom, creating in every moment our life's tapestry. The transformative thread of prayer is always available to be woven into our life's design. In this weaving we experience in wonder the creative presence of God. The chapters of this book give an overview of Christian understanding and practice of prayer. The author combines Scripture, voices and sources from the tradition of the church, poetry, stories and accounts of personal experience to explore ten of the most familiar ways Christians pray. These are: centering, praise, confession, meditative reading of Scripture, petition, intercession, dedication, silence and benediction. Nine sets of Prayer Prompts, one with each chapter, invite you to move from thinking to doing They provide a framework for personal devotion that includes all of the dimensions of Christian prayer discussed in the chapters Resources from Scripture prayers of the church and contemporary materials offer structure and stimulus for expressing the prayers of your heart These Prayer Prompts are adaptable for repeated use Members of a prayer group or spiritual growth group may enjoy sharing experiences with this book Martha Rowlett deeply understands Christian thinking Christian living Christian prayer and dare I say it God She shares her wisdom with utmost simplicity Those who use her book will find themselves becoming better Christians John Cobb professor emeritus Claremont School of Theology
