Functions, Data, and Models Sheldon P. Gordon, Florence S. Gordon, 2025-02-24

This is a college algebra level textbook written to provide the kind of mathematical knowledge and experiences that students will need for courses in other fields such as biology chemistry business finance economics and other areas that are heavily dependent on data either from laboratory experiments or from other studies The focus is on the fundamental mathematical concepts and the realistic problem solving via mathematical modeling rather than the development of algebraic skills that might be needed in calculus Functions Data and Models presents college algebra in a way that differs from almost all college algebra books available today Rather than going over material covered in high school courses the Gordons teach something new Students are given an introduction to data analysis and mathematical modeling presented at a level that students with limited algebraic skills can understand The book contains a rich set of exercises many of which use real data Also included are thought experiments or what if questions that are meant to stretch the student s mathematical thinking

Christian Higher Education David S. Dockery, Christopher W. Morgan, 2018-12-10 Our world is growing increasingly complex and confused a unique and urgent context that calls for a grounded and fresh approach to Christian higher education Christian higher education involves a distinctive way of thinking about teaching learning scholarship curriculum student life administration and governance that is rooted in the historic Christian faith In this volume twenty nine experts from a variety of fields including theology the humanities science mathematics social science philosophy the arts and professional programs explore how the foundational beliefs of Christianity influence higher education and its disciplines Aimed at equipping the next generation to better engage the shifting cultural context this book calls students professors trustees administrators and church leaders to a renewed commitment to the distinctive work of Christian higher education for the good of the society the good of the church and the glory of God
