Dear Nan Emily Carr, Nan Cheney, Humphrey N. W. Toms, 1990 This collection includes 150 letters Emily Carr wrote to her friends Nan Cheney and Humphrey Toms and 100 other letters relating mainly to Emily Carr The letters date from 1930 to 1945 the most prolific period in Carr s career as both painter and writer In them she writes in colourful detail about her everyday activities and discusses her painting the biggest thing in my life There are outbursts of exasperation and anger as well as many indications of her caring her warmth her wisdom and her wit and of her impatience with critics and poseurs and they give insights into her various relationships with among others Lawren Harris Ira Dilworth Jack Shadbolt Garnett Sedgewick Dorothy Livesay A Y Jackson and Arthur Lismer Nan Cheney and Humphrey Toms shared Emily Carr s interest in art Carr s relationship with Cheney dated back to 1930 but did not flourish until 1937 when Cheney moved from Ottawa to Vancouver to become the first full time medical artist at UBC Humphrey Toms was only twenty years old when he first met Emily Carr having asked to visit her after seeing some of her paintings following which a warm friendship developed The correspondence between Cheney and Toms reveals how Carr was regarded at the time and attests to their mutual interest in the Vancouver art scene As an active member Cheney relates gossip about the local art community providing a very personal and often exceedingly critical view of the Vancouver art milieu of the time Doreen Walker has chosen not to change the original text of the letters and includes Carr s misspellings and grammatical irregularities which give a feeling of immediacy to the writing There are numerous examples of her talent for graphic description how she felt rag rug level when depressed and how she was sat down with a spank when ill Perhaps most significant are the many revelations of her deep commitment to her work and of her industry and perseverance despite her failing health Queer how we go on she wrote to Cheney luck there is so much rubber in human composition Love Knows No Bounds Virginia Eriful Sigley,2017-03-21 Emily a young lady from the Philippines immigrated to America to join her aunt The only asset she had when she left home was her strong faith in God to carry her through the great world she was destined to conquer Through God s grace she found a job in a prestigious firm in Los Angeles She s incredibly brilliant courageous and not intimidated by what s ahead of her These are some of the tools which Emily used to reach her greatest success in becoming the chief quality technical consultant of the Finance Circuit Optimum Company Luke a very handsome and intelligent young man was a general manager of the firm to which Emily reported for duty His success in running his department is due to his never daunting leadership He is greatly admired and respected by the people under his management Because of his good judgment and influence he eventually got promoted to executive vice president of the company There was an instant connection between him and Emily ever since they met Over the years of working together they found strength in one another including lifting each other s spirit when things became grim at work As time went on their friendship developed into a romantic relationship As their love for each other grew deeper they relied more and more on the Lord s guidance Luke s visit to Emily s home in the Philippines and meeting her family became the pivotal point in his quest for happiness and peace Most of all Emily s world may be as far away from Luke s world but the world they live in is totally in God s hands Although there is a disparity between Luke s and Emily s world it really didn t matter to them for their deep love for each other will ultimately prevail because love knows no bounds
