The Emily Emmins Papers Carolyn Wells, 1907 It has always seemed to me a pity that nearly all of the people one meets walking in New York are going somewhere I mean they have some definite destination Thus they lose the rare delight that all too little known pleasure of a desultory stroll through the city streets For myself I know of no greater joy than an aimless ramble along the crowded metropolitan thoroughfares Nor does ramble imply as some might mistakenly suppose a slow dawdling gait Not at all the atmosphere of the city itself inspires a brisk steady jog trot but the impression of a ramble is inevitable if the jog trot have no intended goal I am a country woman that is I live in a suburban town but it is quite near enough to the metropolis for us to consider ourselves near New Yorkers And Myrtlemead is a dear little worth while place in its own way We have a Current Culture Club and a Carnegie library and several of us have telephones I am not a member of the Club but that must not be considered as any disparagement of my culture or rather of my capacity for assimilating culture for the Club's aim is the disbursement of that desirable commodity On the contrary I was among the first invited to belong to it

Aspects of Colonial Tanzania History E.Y. Mbogoni, 2012-11-20

Aspects of Colonial Tanzanian History is a collection of essays that examines the lives and experiences of both colonizers and the colonized during colonial rule in what is today known as Tanzania Dr Mbogoni examines a range of topics hitherto unexplored by scholars of Tanzania history namely excessive alcohol consumption the sundowners adultery and violence among the colonial officials attitudes to inter racial sexual liaisons especially between Europeans and Africans game poaching European settler vigilantism radio broadcasting film production and the nature of Arab slavery in Zanzibar A particularly noteworthy case related to European vigilantism is examined the trial of Oldus Elishira a Maasai for the murder of a European settler farmer in 1955 The victim Harold M Stuchbery was speared to death when he attempted to arrest a group of Maasai young men who were passing through his farm The event highlighted the differences in the concepts of justice held by Maasai and the imported justice systems from the colonizers It also raised vexing questions about the colonial judges acquittal of Oldus Elishira while the Maasai who should have been satisfied with that decision decided to take it upon themselves to mete out an appropriate punishment to Elshira instead of total acquittal and to compensate Mrs Stuchbery for the death of her husband by giving her a number of heads of cattle

Emily Hobhouse and the Reports on the Concentration Camps during the Boer War, 1899-1902 Birgit Susanne Seibold, 2011-11-01 The black spot the one very black spot in the picture is the frightful mortality in the Concentration Camps I entirely agree with you in thinking that while a hundred explanations may be offered and a hundred excuses made they do not really amount to any adequate defence I should much prefer to say at once so far as the Civil authorities are concerned that we were suddenly confronted with a problem not of our making with which it was beyond our power properly to grapple And no doubt its vastness was not realised soon enough It was not till six weeks or two months ago that it dawned on me personally I cannot speak for others that the enormous mortality was not merely incidental to the first formation of the camps and the sudden inrush of thousands of people already sick and starving but was going to continue The fact that it continues is no doubt a condemnation of the Camp system The whole thing I think now has been a mistake Alfred Milner to Joseph Chamberlain December 7th 1901 The British scorched earth policy during the last phase of the Anglo Boer War of 1899 1902 led to the burning of farms the destruction of homesteads harvests and livestock and to the internment of the civil population in the so called concentration camps There people mainly women and children died of malnutrition and diseases such as measles pneumonia and typhoid The death rate in the camps was so high nearly 28 000 white Boers succumbed that the English population renowned for its gallantry and chivalry was consternated Lloyd George blamed his government for its policy of extermination Campbell Bannerman spoke of methods of barbarism and philanthropic institutions protested led by Emily Hobhouse who was the first civilian to investigate the conditions of the camps The government reacted and sent a ladies commission under the leadership of Millicent Garrett Fawcett to South Africa Birgit Seibold's study is the first to compare the unofficial and the official report on the camps and to give an insight into conditions in each of the thirty three white concentration camps Based on first hand research among the Hobhouse manuscripts this book is both scholarly and compulsively readable

Emily Dickinson, Woman of Letters

Lewis Turco, 1993-01-01 Buried in Emily Dickinson's letters are many lines that are stunningly beautiful as beautiful as any to be found in her poems Lewis Turco has taken some of these lines and written poems from them on them and around them This volume then is a collaboration between two writers one a 19th century woman whose work became known to most readers only in the 20th century and the other a post modernist man of letters an award winning poet critic and scholar In addition to the poems collected here Turco has written an informative introduction and included several essays by feminist critics and other scholars who discuss various aspects of Emily Dickinson's letters Emily Dickinson Woman of Letters is therefore at once an addition to the Dickinson canon a distinguished collection of contemporary poems an important volume of critical scholarship in American literature and a fascinating reading experience that will appeal to a wide audience of professionals and non professionals alike
