The Diffused Story of the Footwashing in John 13 Yanrong Chen, 2021-02-09 The first Catholic missionaries of the early modern period arrived in mainland China in 1582 but the first Catholic Bible did not appear until 1968 long after Protestant missionaries already had published several versions The mystery behind the four hundred year gap is not a why question but instead involves many how questions primarily how did communication of the Bible take place in the Chinese context without a written text in the Chinese language This book uncovers narrative forms of biblical stories and explores the ways they were delivered to Chinese audiences Relying on textual evidence it presents a diversified exploration of a specific biblical story from the Latin Vulgate Bible the footwashing in John 13 and its translation into various Chinese texts In different religious milieus the biblical narrative provided Chinese audiences a core source of faith connected them with the most commonly accepted beliefs and fostered their religiosity across communities in China from the sixteenth through the eighteenth centuries The interdisciplinary approach adopted herein sheds new light on the history of the Bible in China and paves the way for further studies on the abundance of Chinese biblical stories and texts

The Johannine Footwashing as the Sign of Perfect Love Bincy Mathew, 2018-11-23 Back cover Was the footwashing in Jn 13 1 20 simply an act of service or humility Bincy Mathew provides a critical and thorough exegetical analysis of the footwashing and shows that it is the symbolic prefiguration of Jesus' death on the cross enacted during the last supper to manifest his perfect love for his own

Sense Perception and Testimony in the Gospel According to John Sunny Kuan-Hui Wang, 2017-06-02 In this book Sunny Kuan Hui Wang explores the relationship between sense perception and testimony in the Gospel of John While Johannine scholars tend to focus on one or the other she shows that sense perception and testimony are both significant and are used together with the intention of drawing readers into the narrative so that they become witnesses in an emotionally engaged way It is argued that John's use of sense perception together with testimony is rooted in Jewish literature Yet John also employs a Graeco Roman rhetorical technique enargeia which appeals to the persuasive power of sense perception to make his narrative vivid John does not downplay sense perception Rather he uses it in the context of testimony as a means of persuasion to draw the readers in their imagination into the experience of the first disciples and thus deeper into faith and witness

Jesus' Farewell to the Disciples Tolmie, 2021-08-30 Jesus Farewell to the Disciples continues and intensifies the quest for uncovering the full potential of narrative criticism of the Fourth Gospel by means of a narratological analysis of John 13 1 17 26 After a discussion of theoretical issues the author selects a particular narratological model This is discussed in detail and then utilised for a systematic analysis of John 13 1 17 26 The results of the analysis are integrated in order to indicate the way in which a particular perspective on discipleship is presented in these chapters This book is important for scholars who are interested in the application of narrative criticism to biblical texts as well as in the Johannine perspective on discipleship

The Gospel according to John Herman Ridderbos, 2018-08-21 New in the Eerdmans Classic Biblical Commentaries collection In this commentary on John originally published in Dutch in 1987 and translated into English a decade later Herman Ridderbos engages the host of twentieth century interpretations while also developing his own integral understanding of John in which the Gospel emerges as a profoundly theological work Beginning with a theological introduction on the peculiar character of the Fourth Gospel Ridderbos uses verse by verse exposition to unpack John's distinctive apostolic character offering expert literary and homiletical exegesis of the Fourth Gospel as the Christian church adopted it

The Testimony of the Beloved Disciple Richard Bauckham, 2007-11 A leading New Testament scholar explores key issues in the Gospel of John

The Spirit of the New Testament John Christopher Thomas, 2019-05-21 The essays in this volume on the one hand together form an exploration of the Spirit in the New Testament and on the other hand a demonstration of the spirit of the NT The focus is largely on the Johannine literature but there are also exegetical studies in Matthew and Luke The studies are either entirely new or have already been influential among Pentecostal theologians this publication makes them deservedly and conveniently available to a wider readership Essays include The Kingdom of God in Matthew Discipleship in Mark The Ending of Mark The Composition of the Fourth Gospel The Fourth Gospel and Rabbinic Judaism The Spirit in the Fourth Gospel Healing in the Atonement The Structure of Acts Footwashing Women Pentecostals and the Bible The Literary Structure of 1 John Pentecostal Theology in the 21st Century A Grammar of the Ethics of John Jan G. van der Watt, 2019-11-12 Jan G van der Watt analyses in detail the ethics of John's letters against their respective socio historical backgrounds He then compares the ethics of the Gospel and Letters showing that the basic core narrative overlaps in these writings although some ethical material is applied in different ways to different situations A rich ethical landscape is revealed addressing issues like the importance of interpersonal relations which results in co operation through mutual love The author shows that the focus in 1 John is pastoral aiming at convincing the addressees not to be deceived by their schismatics but to strengthen their relationships with the eyewitness group In 2 John advice is given about visitors who threaten the church with false teachings while 3 John deals with a conflict about receiving travelling missionaries In both cases ethical guidelines are given which aim at protecting the group Volume 2 Dust Jacket Inside front Flap The Companion to the Book of Common Worship Peter C. Bower, 2003-01-01 Published during the tenth anniversary of the Book of Common Worship 1993 The Companion to the Book of Common Worship is a practical guide answering questions such as how do I use the Book of Common Worship to its fullest advantage and how can the Book of Common Worship form a congregation into a community that glorifies and enjoys God Gospel According to St John Andrew Lincoln, 2005-11-25 The magnificent series of biblical commentaries known as Black's New Testament Commentaries BNTC under the General Editorship of Professor Morna Hooker has had a gap for far too long it has lacked an up to date commentary on the Fourth Gospel Professor Andrew Lincoln now fills this gap with his excellent new commentary The key questions for scholars are gone into thoroughly questions of historicity the use of historical traditions and sources relationship to the Synoptics authorship setting first readers and Professor Lincoln makes his own position on these issues abundantly clear The Fourth Gospel raises a number of problems generally known as The Johannine Question According to tradition the Gospel was written by St John the Apostle The authenticity of the tradition is examined in the introduction but the textual issues are examined within the commentary itself For example one problem is that Chapters 15 and 16 seem in early versions to have preceded chapter 14 Chapter 21 must have been a later addition The purpose of the Gospel as stated in Chapter 20 v 31 is to strengthen the reader's faith in Jesus as the Christ and the Son of God But even the celebrated prologue has given rise to much speculation whereas most commentators believe it is the key to the Gospel as a whole These issues are meat and drink to scholars but in Professor Lincoln's expert hands they are extremely interesting and highly pertinent to our contemporary understanding of the Gospel The Gospel According to John D. A. Carson, 1991 This commentary seeks above all to explain the text of John's Gospel to those whose privilege and responsibility it is to minister the Word of God to others to preach and to lead Bible studies I have tried to include the kind of information they need to know but to do so in such a way that the informed layperson could also use the work in personal study of the Bible exclusively for purposes of personal growth in edification and understanding In particular I have attempted 1 To make clear the flow of the text 2 To engage a small but representative part of the massive secondary literature on John 3 To draw a few lines towards establishing how the Fourth Gospel contributes to biblical and systematic theology 4 To offer a consistent exposition of John's Gospel as an evangelistic Gospel Preface

Interfigural Readings of the Gospel of John Ingrid Rosa Kitzberger, 2019-11-20 New and challenging readings of biblical characters This volume of collected essays introduces the concept of interfigurality the interrelations and interdependence between characters in the Gospel of John and in the Synoptic Gospels and the Hebrew Bible The essays are informed by a narrative critical reader response post feminist hermeneutics and an autobiographical approach to biblical texts This volume encourages transformative encounters between present day readers and the ancient biblical texts Features Previously unpublished conference papers and published essays A new perspective on the relation between New Testament and Hebrew Bible Foreword by Fernando F Segovia Ingrid Rosa Kitzberger is an independent scholar and the author of Transformative Encounters Jesus and Women Reviewed 1999 and the editor of The Personal Voice in Biblical Interpretation 1998 and Autobiographical Biblical Criticism Between Text and Self 2002

Imitate Me as I Imitate Christ H. H. Drake Williams III, 2025-02-20 What did the Corinthians think that Paul meant when he urged them to imitate him as he imitates Christ Exploring 1 Corinthians Romans 1 Clement and early Christian texts it is likely that the Corinthians knew more of Jesus's teachings and lifestyle Using the fruit of collective memory studies this study approximates a collective memory about Jesus It then compares this approximated memory with the surrounding context of 1 Cor 4 16 and 11 1 finding much agreement

Johannine Perspectives on the Death of Jesus Martinus Christianus Boer, 1996 How do the Gospel and Epistles of John depict the death of Jesus and why do they do so in the way that they do The argument of this study is that there is a diversity of theological perspectives on Jesus' death in the Johannine Corpus and that at least some of that diversity can be elucidated with reference to the changing Sitze im Leben of the Johannine community This book thus attempts to correlate Johannine theology with Johannine history building on the earlier labors of Raymond E Brown and J Louis Martyn in particular Part One assesses recent trends in Johannine scholarship and gives a fresh account of the history of Johannine Christianity and of its literary legacy Part Two then investigates Jesus death in the Gospel and Epistles of John attempting to understand and to explain the diversity of Johannine theological perspectives with reference to historical developments and sociological realities Focal point of discussion and analysis are Johannine passages which relate Jesus death to the fulfillment of Scripture e g John 12 37 39 19 24 36 37 to his departure or going away e g 14 2 3 to his exaltation and glorification e g 3 14 8 28 12 32 34 13 31 and to the language of flesh blood and water John 6 51 56 13 1 20 19 34 I John 1 7 4 2 5 6 8 2 John 7 Sacraments after Christendom Andrew Francis, Janet Sutton, 2022-01-01 In contemporary Western society the church has been pushed to the margins leading experts to describe the current era as a time after Christendom Many traditional churches and congregations are struggling a condition worsened by the COVID 19 pandemic regulations As the practice of churchgoing wanes the performance of the sacrament is called into question How can we bring the traditional communal experience of sacrament into the modern world In Sacraments after Christendom Andrew Francis and Janet Sutton tackle this question head on exploring and discussing the enactment of the sacrament in the context of church decline and an increasingly isolated world In doing so they deconstruct traditional perceptions and broaden our understanding of ritual and community in order to rediscover the truth of the sacrament ESV Expository Commentary (Volume 9) Crossway, 2020-10-28 Designed to strengthen the global church with a widely accessible theologically sound and pastorally wise resource for understanding and applying the overarching storyline of the Bible this commentary series features the full text of the ESV Bible passage by passage with crisp and theologically rich exposition and application Editors Iain M Duguid James M Hamilton and Jay Sklar have gathered a team of experienced pastor theologians to provide a new generation of pastors and other teachers of the Bible around the world with a globally minded commentary series rich in biblical theology and broadly Reformed doctrine making the message of redemption found in all of Scripture clear and available to all Contributors to this volume include James M Hamilton Jr Brian Vickers
