For Love Robert Creeley, 1980-08      For Love, by Robert Creeley Robert Duncan, 1962      Robert Creeley's Life and Work John Wilson, 1987 A critical retrospective of Creeley's work from 1952 to 1982      Form, Power, and Person in Robert Creeley's Life and Work Stephen Fredman, Steve McCaffery, 2010-03-15 By any measure international reputation influence upon fellow writers and later generations number of books published scholarly and critical attention Robert Creeley 1926 2005 is a literary giant an outstanding irreplaceable poet For many decades readers have remarked upon the almost harrowing emotional nakedness of Creeley's writing In the years since his death it may be that the disappearance of the writer allows that nakedness to be observed more readily and without embarrassment Written by the foremost critics of his poetry Form Power and Person in Robert Creeley's Life and Work is the first book to treat Creeley's career as a whole Masterfully edited by Stephen Fredman and Steve McCaffery the essays in this collection have been gathered into three parts Those in Form consider a variety of characteristic formal qualities that differentiate Creeley from his contemporaries In Power writers reflect on the pressure exerted by emotions gender issues and politics in Creeley's life and work In Person Creeley's unique artistic and psychological project of constructing a person reflected in his correspondence teaching interviews collaborations and meditations on the concept of experience is excavated While engaging these three major topics the authors remain as Creeley does intent upon the ways such issues appear in language for Creeley's nakedness is most conspicuously displayed in his intimate relationship with words Contributors Charles Altieri Rachel Blau DuPlessis Stephen Fredman Benjamin Friedlander Alan Golding Michael Davidson Steve McCaffery Peter Middleton Marjorie Perloff Peter Quartermain Libbie Rifkin      Selected Poems of Robert Creeley Robert Creeley, 1996-03-19 From the first clear grounded 1940s insight snapshots of For Love through his recent decade experiments with syllable by syllable intelligence Robert Creeley has created a noble life body of poetry that extends the work of his predecessors Pound Williams Zukofsky and Olson and provides like them a method for his successors in exploring our new American poetic consciousness Allen Ginsberg Visionary and oracular Creeley has been a worker in the deep romantic vein words in this poetry are magic charged as they are in dreams with message of the dark of the human condition Robert Duncan The subtlest feeling for the measure that I encounter anywhere except in the verses of Ezra Pound William Carlos Williams Robert Creeley's poetry is as basic and necessary as the air we breathe as hospitable plain and open as our continent itself He is about the best we have John Ashbery Dear lovely decorous tender ah there is no one like him Carolyn Kizer      For Love ,1962      A Book of Love Poetry Jon Stallworthy, 1986-12-11 Poets through the ages offer interpretations of love's changing moods and forms      Robert Creeley's Poetry Cynthia Dubin Edelberg, 1978      Wittgenstein's Ladder Marjorie Perloff, 2012-06-12 Perloff has brilliantly adapted Wittgenstein's conception of meaning and use to an analysis of contemporary language poetry Linda Voris Boston Review Marjorie Perloff among our foremost critics of twentieth century poetry argues that Ludwig

Wittgenstein provided writers with a radical new aesthetic a key to recognizing the inescapable strangeness of ordinary language Taking seriously Wittgenstein s remark that philosophy ought really to be written only as a form of poetry Perloff begins by discussing Wittgenstein the poet What we learn is that the poetics of everyday life is anything but banal This book has the lucidity and the intelligence we have come to expect from Marjorie Perloff Linda Munk American Literature Wittgenstein s Ladder offers significant insights into the current state of poetry literature and literary study Perloff emphasizes the vitality of reading and thinking about poetry and the absolute necessity of pushing against the boundaries that define and limit our worlds David Clippinger Chicago Review Majorie Perloff has done more to illuminate our understanding of twentieth century poetic language than perhaps any other critic Entertaining witty and above all highly original Willard Bohn SubStance What Is It Then between Us? Eric Murphy Selinger, 2018-10-18 Tracing the solitude of the American self the difference between idolatrous and companionate affection and the dream of an America of love Eric Murphy Selinger shows how such concerns can shape a poet s most intimate decisions about genre and form His lucid elegant prose illuminates not only well known love poets including Emily Dickinson and William Carlos Williams but also more unexpected figures notably Wallace Stevens and Mina Loy Like the poets he discusses Selinger refuses to view love reductively Rather he takes the impulse to debunk love as part of his subject whether it crops up in Puritan theology or contemporary literary theory As he details Whitman s courtship of his readers weighs the restorations of romance in H D and Ezra Pound and demonstrates the bonds between poets as disparate as Robert Creeley and Robert Lowell Selinger establishes love poetry as an essential American genre The Transmutation of Love and Avant-Garde Poetics Jeanne Heuving, 2016-05-19 The Transmutation of Love and Avant Garde Poetics is a probing examination of how the writing of sexual love undergoes a radical revision by avant garde poets in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Today the exploration of love by poets long a fixture of Western poetic tradition is thought to be in decline with love itself understood to be a mere ideological overlay for the more real entities of physical sex and desire In The Transmutation of Love and Avant Garde Poetics Jeanne Heuving claims that a key achievement of poetry by Ezra Pound H D Robert Duncan Kathleen Fraser Nathaniel Mackey and others lies significantly in their engagement with the synergistic relations between being in love and writing love These poets she argues have traded the clich d lover of yore for impersonal or posthuman poetic speakers that sustain the gloire and mystery of love poetry of prior centuries As Robert Duncan writes There is a love in which we are outcast and vagabond from what we are that we call falling in love Heuving claims that this writing of love is defining for avant garde poetics identifying how such important discoveries as Pound s and H D s Imagism Pound s Cantos and Duncan s open field poetics are derived through their changed writing of love She draws attention to how the prevailing concept of language as material is inadequate to the ways these poets also engage language as a medium as a conduit enabling them to address love afresh in a time defined through preoccupations with sexuality They engage love as immanent and change it through a writing that acts on itself The Transmutation of Love and Avant Garde Poetics ascribes the waning of love poetry to its problematic form a genre in which empowered poetic speakers constitute their speech through the objectification of comparatively disempowered subjects or beloveds Refusing this pervasive practice the poets she highlights reject the delimiting one sided tradition of masculine lovers and passive feminine beloveds instead they create a more nuanced dynamic poetics of ecstatic exploration what Heuving calls projective love and libidinalized field poetics a formally innovative poetry in which one perception leads directly to the next and all aspects of a poem are generative of meaning Love's Shadow Paul A. Bové, 2021-01-12 A case for literary critics and other humanists to stop wallowing in their aestheticized helplessness and instead turn to poetry comedy and love Literary criticism is an agent of despair and its poster child is Walter Benjamin Critics have spent decades stewing in his melancholy What if instead we dared to love poetry to choose comedy over Hamlet's tragedy or to pursue romance over Benjamin's suicide on the edge of France of Europe and of civilization itself Paul A. Bové challenges young lit critters to throw away their shades and let the sun shine in Love's Shadow is his three step manifesto for a new literary criticism that risks sentimentality and melodrama and eschews self consciousness The first step is to choose poetry There has been since the time of Plato a battle between philosophy and poetry Philosophy has championed misogyny while poetry has championed women like Shakespeare's Rosalind Philosophy is ever so stringent try instead the sober cheerfulness of Wallace Stevens Bové's second step is to choose the essay He praises Benjamin's great friend and sometime antagonist Theodor Adorno who gloried in writing essays not dissertations and treatises The third step is to choose love If you want a Baroque hero make that hero Rembrandt who brought lovers to life in his paintings Putting aside passivity and cynicism would amount to a revolution in literary studies Bové seeks nothing less and he has a program for achieving it

Disjunctive Poetics Peter Quartermain, 1992-06-26 Disjunctive Poetics examines some of the experimental contemporary writers including Stein and Zukofsky whose work forms a counterpoint to the mainstream writing of our time Peter Quartermain suggests that the explosion of such modern writing is linked to the severe political social and economic dislocation of non English speaking immigrants who arriving in America at the turn of the century found themselves uprooted from their tradition and disassociated from their culture The New American Poetry and Cold War Nationalism

Stephan Delbos, 2021-08-20 This book examines Donald M. Allen's crucially influential poetry anthology The New American Poetry 1945-1960 from the perspectives of American Cold War nationalism and literary transnationalism considering how the anthology expresses and challenges Cold War norms claiming post war Anglophone poetic innovation for the United States and reflecting the conservative American society of the 1950s Examining the crossroads of politics social life and literature during the Cold War this book puts Allen's anthology into its historical context and reveals how the editor was influenced by the volatile climate of nationalism and politics that pervaded every aspect of American life during the Cold War Reconsidering the dramatic influence that Allen's anthology has had on the way we think about and anthologize American poetry and recontextualizing The New American Poetry as a document of the Cold War this study not only helps us come to a more accurate understanding of how the anthology came into being but also encourages new ways of thinking about all of Anglophone poetry from the twentieth century and today Modernism Revisited, 2015-06-29 Offering essays from some of the leading academic writers and younger scholars in the field of American studies from both the United States and Europe this volume constitutes a rich and varied reconsideration of Modernist American poetry Its contributions fall into two general categories new and original discussions of many of the principal figures of the movement Frost Pound Eliot Williams Cummings and Stevens and reflections on the phenomenon of Modernism within a broader cultural context the influence of Haiku parallels and connections with Surrealism responses to the Modernist accomplishment by later American poets Because of its mixture of European and American perspectives Modernism Revisited will be of vital interest to students and scholars of American literature and Modernism in general and of twentieth century comparative literature and art Roots of Lyric Andrew Welsh, 2019-01-29 Folk riddles emblems charms and chants are a few of the traditional forms examined by Andrew Welsh to discover the means by which poetic language achieves its powerful effects His book shows how the roots of lyric are embodied in primitive verse forms how they are raised to higher powers in poetry from the Renaissance to the twentieth century and how an awareness of them can illuminate our reading of the poetry of any age Andrew Welsh is Associate Professor of English at Rutgers University Originally published in 1978 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Massive Pissed Love Richard Hell, 2015-10-01 A seminal collection of ruminations on art books and music by one of the sharpest minds and sensibilities in both punk rock and literature Richard Hell may best be known as a punk icon a founding member of seminal bands Television the Heartbreakers and The Voidoids but for decades he s been a prominent voice in American letters Through his novels Go Now and Godlike and his critically acclaimed autobiography I Dreamed I Was a Very Clean Tramp Hell has proven himself as a talented and insightful writer across many genres in many forms But one might argue that Richard s true genius lies in shorter form as a writer on culture Love comes in spurts Hell once sang and that could well describe the intensity of his penetrating and wickedly droll criticism Massive Pissed Love is a collection of Hell s ruminations on art literature and music among other things that s like a candy box of reading treats a bag of shiny marbles a cabinet of mementos and uncanny fetishes However one thinks of it it s a joy to read from start to finish and a deeply necessary addition to the oeuvre of one of the sharpest minds and sensibilities at work today The Voice That Is Great Within Us Hayden Carruth, 1983-09-01 What an achievement these sixty years of poetry In whatever terms we Americans
