Knowing she will always be a target for those who want to exploit her connections with Hell, she's learning defensive magic. It seems the only way to ensure she and her fiancé Denver Beck have a future together. But not everyone in Atlanta or at the Vatican is pleased by this news. In fact, some want to ban the use of all magic, and Riley would make the perfect scapegoat. As a new demonic enemy stalks her, Guild politics roil the city, throwing the trappers into chaos. To protect herself and the man she loves, Riley will be forced to choose: continue in her legendary father's footsteps or carve her own path. A path that may well lead to her losing everything she so desperately seeks to protect.

Denver Beck is facing two major events: taking his vows as a grand master and then as a husband. He's as nervous about committing his life to the fight against Darkness as he's excited to say "I do." All his worries about the future are confirmed when a city is buried in brimstone, killing every single inhabitant. Was this Hell's doing or is some other entity at work? It's Beck's job to find out. After more cities are destroyed, Riley is summoned to Rome to answer for her actions. If they want a future as man and wife, she and Beck will have to take a stand. But will they be strong enough to stop this new threat, a killer that even the angels fear?
