A Brief Guide to C. S. Lewis Paul Simpson, 2013-09-19 November 2013 marks the 50th anniversary of the death of Clive Staples Jack Lewis when a memorial to him will be placed in Poet's Corner in Westminster Abbey Although perhaps best known as the author of the seven Chronicles of Narnia published between 1949 and 1954 Lewis also wrote The Pilgrim's Regress a trilogy of science fiction novels incorporating Christian themes and a large number of non fiction books about his faith accessible to Christians and non believers alike In a survey of the greatest British writers since 1945 the Times newspaper ranked Lewis eleventh ahead of Salman Rushdie Anthony Burgess and Ian Fleming A Brief Guide to C S Lewis explores Lewis's life from his reconversion to Christianity under the influence of his friend J R R Tolkien which had such a profound influence on his writing both fiction and non fiction to his marriage to American writer Joy Davidman Gresham and his battle with cancer He died on 22 November 1963 a day before the first ever episode of Dr Who a TV series with many links to his Narnia stories was shown Although this Brief Guide ranges well beyond the world of Narnia to explore other aspects of Lewis's life and his other writings it does not do so unusually among books on Lewis from the point of view of Christian scholarship thereby assuming much knowledge of theology on the part of readers That Lewis wrote about the problems of praying is significant the specific texts he discusses and dissects are likely to be of less significance to most readers The guide provides synopses of Lewis's fiction an overview of his other writings a biography and a look at all the many different versions of his stories that have appeared In doing so it draws on recent interviews by the author with some of the many talented people who have worked on these adaptations

Books-in-Brief: Teaching Children Ann El-Moslimany, 2020-01-01 IIIT Books In Brief Series is a valuable collection of the Institute's key publications written in condensed form to give readers a core understanding of the main contents of the original The author explores education from the essential principles of Tawhid Oneness of God humanity knowledge fitrah concept of human nature and the role of humans as vicegerents of God on earth responsibility and stewardship The current education system dates back a hundred years or more and is in desperate need of a reboot In developing the industrialized society the education system itself became like a factory the end product being pupils who merely regurgitate facts and themselves end up as cogs in the machine that is the wider industrial complex The legacy of this is a soulless functional educational system that fails to develop pupils to meet the present and future needs of individuals and their expectations This failure inevitably impacts on society and humanity at large Society has long since moved beyond the industrial revolution and into an age of global connectedness where the sum of human knowledge is freely available via the internet It is an age where people are generally more well informed and on a variety of issues An effective holistic educational philosophy is required one that gives full spiritual meaning to all that a child learns It should equip children with spiritual awareness morals and values social responsibility and accountability self discipline and self determination self confidence and empowerment ambition and aspiration tempered with thoughtfulness and a sense of gratitude
