

| Option | Description |
|--|---|
|  | Start of Game Games can either start immediately or when the number of max players have joined the game. |
|  | Country Selection In a standard game you can choose which country you would like to play. However, if you deactivate Nation Selection, countries will be randomly assigned to every player. |
|  | Anti-Cheat The Anti-Cheat System prevents multiple users from logging into the game from the same internet connection. You can deactivate the Anti-Cheat System to allow for family and friends to play together. However, games with deactivated Anti-Cheat will not be ranked, meaning that no points will be awarded on your service record. |
|  | Peace Period During peace period, it is not possible to declare war, attack any human players, or be attacked by them. It is also impossible to enter their provinces, unless right-of-way, shared map or shared intelligence has been granted. This non-aggression pact cannot be broken. You can set a peace period for up to 14 days. |
|  | Peace Period AI This peace period applies to all computer opponents. It can also span up to 14 days. The same rules as with the human player peace period apply. |
|  | Maximum Inactivity This specifies the days of inactivity after which a human player is taken over by the AI. Inactive players can be replaced by the game creator/game admin. You can enter a value of 2 to 5 days. If you don't set a number of days here the standard value of 5 days will be applied automatically. |
|  | Coalitions In most game rounds it is allowed to form temporary in-game alliances (so-called coalitions). |
|  | Minimum Rank Some game rounds can only be joined by players of a certain rank (account level). If you rise in rank, you will have more types of maps to choose from. |
|  | Extra Units There is a fixed set of units available in all games. The Air Pack introduces the Fighter, the Bomber, and the Balloon as additional units. The Air & Naval Pack additionally introduces the Light Cruiser and the Submarine. |
|  | Frontline Pioneer Only "Frontline Pioneers" have access to Frontline Pioneer games, which include early updates and yet unpublished features for testing purposes. Our community support from time to time looks for players who like to participate so visit the forum regularly. |
