Afropolitanism: Reboot Carli Coetzee, 2017-05-23 This edited collection comprises an original and activist group of contributions on that much maligned figure the Afropolitan The contributors do not aim to define or fix the term anew the reboot is instead the beginnings of an activist scholarly agenda in which the Afropolitan is reimagined to include the stealthy figure crossing the Mediterranean by boat and the Somali shopkeeper in a South African township In their pieces included here the authors insist on the need to ask questions about the inclusion of such globally mobile Africans in any theorisations of the transnational circuits we call Afropolitan This collection from some of the foremost voices on Afropolitanism invigorates anew the debate and reboots understandings of who the Afropolitan is the many places he calls his origin and the multiple places she comes to call home in the world The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of African Cultural Studies

Good Things Happen in Glasgow Jude Addo, 2014-07-31 This is not your ordinary love story In the second chapter of Genesis a marriage takes place between a man and a woman that pales in comparison to the hypnotism of modern day romance This union bears little semblance to the excessively romanticized 21st century courtship engagement and wedding Their matrimony is solely driven by purpose a concept typically foreign to the new age of passion fuelled relationships Youth speaker and Christian author Jude Addo draws upon life changing experiences during his betrothal that unveil some hard truths about love relationships and life in general This book speaks to the trials and triumphs that come with obeying the voice of God whilst challenging the status quo on several religious and sociological matters A man of refreshing candour Addo cleverly uses his engagement period as a thrilling backdrop to take the reader on a voyage of spiritual enlightenment

The Neoliberal Imagination in Contemporary Literature Tammy Amiel Houser, 2024-08-06 This book examines the relationship between empathy and neoliberalism as it unfolded in the aftermath of the 2008 financial crisis and through the turbulent 2010s Via close readings of contemporary novels as well as various non fictional texts it traces the changing approaches to empathy in the post financial crisis imagination highlighting a crucial re conceptualization of empathy as a boundaryless force untethered to local or social circumstance This reconceptualization implicitly aligns empathy with the neoliberal ethos of globalism and distances it from the traditional notion of sympathy Via complex dialogue with the novelistic tradition of sympathy contemporary novelists highlight the problematics of boundaryless empathy while exploring ways to resist neoliberal views and values Analyzing engagements with empathy in post 2008 literature and culture the book sheds light on the underlying affective dynamics that enabled the persistence of neoliberalism after the 2008 financial crisis alongside efforts to challenge its dominance

Return in Modern African Literature Ernest Cole, 2025 Using close readings of nine novels by African or African descended novelists this book examines three phases of African migration departure disillusionment and the impulse to return The experiences of African migrants in the diaspora are deeply inflected by the condition of living as Black bodies in white spaces In this work author Ernest Cole examines closely the narratives of migration and return presented in nine powerful novels by authors who include Chimamanda Adichie NoViolet Bulawayo Teju Cole and others The novels reveal a reversal of expectations that migrants from Africa experience upon arrival in the West a reversal prompted in part by the racial prejudice they are confronted with as Black individuals As the author notes the novels also illustrate the desire to return to the homeland as a better alternative to the precarious life in the West even though such a move is not without its complications The study is divided into three parts with seven chapters The first two chapters deal with the reasons for the departure of migrants from the continent the next two depict the experiences of migrants in the West and the last three focus on contemplations of the return journey home Collectively the chapters lay out three phases in the migration process departure from home disillusionment in the West and return to the country of origin Within this framework the book uses displacement and dislocation to examine a host of themes social alienation alterity and the precarity of Africans in the diaspora Slavery, Migrations, and Transformations: Connecting Old and New Diasporas to the Homeland Toyin

Sanchez, 2015-07-28 From the historical movements of enslaved Africans to the Americas to newer migrations of Africans to spaces like Belgium and France experiences of blackness on a global stage reflect themes of negotiation persecution isolation unification remembrance and much more Yet it is impossible to minimize the complex experiences that make up the African diaspora throughout the world as diasporic communities face a range of struggles specifically related to the politics of identity and connections to the continent of Africa itself This book is thus a timely and much needed exploration of the intricate nature of culture and life in the African diaspora It examines identities collectivities and relationships with Africa and Africans It helps fill a gap in the field by illuminating the complex experiences of blackness in a manner that motivates readers to grapple with the nuances diaspora studies and African issues on a global stage This book balances conceptualizations of diaspora by engaging with scholars exploring old African diasporas newer migrations and even regional movement within the continent of Africa itself More importantly the chronological breadth of the volume allows readers to explore historical matters alongside comparable contemporary issues as a way of assessing continuities and the ways in

Daily Graphic M. Therson-Cofie,1957-06-06 Dreamland Carly Goodman,2023-03-13 In a world of border walls and obstacles to migration a lottery where winners can gain permanent residency in the United States sounds too good to be true Just as unlikely is the idea that the United States would make such visas available to foster diversity within a country where systemic racism endures But in 1990 the United States Diversity Visa Lottery was created to do just that Dreamland tells the surprising story of this unlikely government program and its role in American life as well as the global story of migration Historian Carly Goodman takes readers from Washington D C where proponents deployed a colorblind narrative about our nation of immigrants to secure visas for white immigrants to the African countries where it flourished and fostered dreams of going to America From the post office to the internet aspiring emigrants visa agents and others embraced the lottery and tried their luck in a time of austerity and limits Rising African immigration to the United States has enriched American life created opportunities for mobility and nourished imagined possibilities But the promise of the American dream has been threatened by the United States embrace of anti immigrant policies and persistent anti Black racism

African Philosophical and Literary Possibilities Aretha Phiri, 2020-06-23 Recognizing philosophy's traditional influence on and literature's creative stimulus for sociopolitical discourses imaginations and structures African Philosophical and Literary Possibilities Re-reading the Canon edited by Aretha Phiri probes the cross referential interdisciplinary relationships between African literature and African philosophy The contributors write within the broader context of renewed interest in and concerns around epistemological decolonization and to advance African scholarly transformation This volume argues that in their convergent ideological and imaginative attempts to articulate an African conditionality African philosophy and literature share overlapping concerns and aspirations In this way this book engages and examines the intersectional canons of these disciplines in order to determine their intra continental epistemological transformative possibilities within broader global societal explorations of the current moment of decolonization Where much of the scholarship on African philosophy has focused on addressing issues associated with the postcolonial task of African self assertion in the face of or against Euro modernist hegemony this innovative book project shifts the focus and broadens the scope away from merely discoursing with the global North by mapping out how philosophy and literature can be viewed as mutually enriching disciplines within and for Africa
