Giancarlo Mazzanti

Giancarlo Mazzanti Architecture As Mechanism For Building Community:

Architecture as Mechanism for Building Community Giancarlo Mazzanti, 2014 Giancarlo Mazzanti was invited this year by the Wouter Mikmak Foundation to lecture in the Designers of the Future series because of the exceptionally engaged character of his architectural practice wherein he demonstrates that it is also possible to situate social values at the core of architectural design. He aims to empower transformations and build community focusing on adapting architecture to make it capable of changing behaviour. It is Mazzanti's belief that architecture's worth is based not only on itself but also on what it produces on its capacity to perform rather than on its capacity to represent. Topical perspectives are illustrated with exemplary case studies.
