Global Taiwan Suzanne Berger, Richard K. Lester, 2015-02-12 Global Taiwan examines the impact of globalization on the industry and economy of Taiwan since the spectacular growth of the 1990s Drawing on hundreds of interviews with firms in Taiwan China the United States Japan Europe and other areas the book analyzes the strengths and weaknesses of Taiwanese firms at a time when they face new competition from powerful global leaders and new producers in China The contributors cover topics of enormous importance for Taiwan as well as the rest of the world including transformations in the international economy technological advances that enabled modularization and fragmentation of the production system contract manufacturers regionalization and links with Chinese industry The book addresses such questions as Can Taiwanese companies be maintained and expanded with the same corporate strategies and public policies as in the past Can these strategies still work for other countries If changes are required what resources can be mobilized in the public and private sectors As massive relocation of manufacturing and services moves plants and jobs to low wage countries like China and India what will remain at home in societies like Taiwan

Facets Of Competitiveness: Narratives From Asean Ashish Lall, 2011-04-27 The ten countries in the ASEAN region account for approximately 5% of world gross domestic product and 8% of world population and represent the most diverse group of nations in terms of the level of prosperity political system culture language and history This diversity in ASEAN not only helps us understand the notion of national competitiveness but also provides important policy lessons for both developed and developing countries This book a collection of essays provides insights on competitiveness challenges and policies It provides an excellent overview of competitiveness for a group of countries at various stages of development Written in a simple and accessible manner this book will be of interest to students researchers business executives and government officials

Rent Seeking and Development Christine Ngoc Ngo, 2020-03-25 Rent seeking continues to be a topic of much discussion and debate within the political economy This new study challenges previous assumptions and sets out a new analysis of the dynamics of rent and rent seeking in development using Vietnam as a case study This book provides an alternative approach to the study of economic development and illuminates new perspectives in a contemporary context It argues that not only has there been an incomplete understanding of Vietnam s industrial development over the last three decades but that neoclassical economics do not adequately address many of the issues endangering Vietnam s development A significant observation of the Vietnamese experience is the analytical view that rents can be developmental and growth enhancing if the configuration of rent management incentivizes industrial upgrade and conditions firm performance Underlining the need to reexamine how economic actors and the state collaborate through formal and informal institutions this study fills a gap in the scholarship of the political economy of rent and rent seeking and how rents might be used for developmental purposes

BOOK JACKET Transformation of Japanese Multinational Enterprises and Business Shige Makino,Yasuro Uchida,Tamiko Kasahara,2024-03-30 The purpose of this book is to highlight how current successful Japanese multinational enterprises MNEs and companies have changed their business or business models in the past three decades Japanese MNEs received a lot of attention from academia and industry during the 1980s and the early 1990s and their factors for success have been compared with those of Western MNEs Unfortunately following the collapse of the bubble economy in the early 1990s international business researchers and practitioners attention has turned away from Japan and its MNEs to emerging markets notably the rapidly growing China Japanese MNEs have faced the mature domestic economy and also have had to overcome many new challenges in the twenty first century such as rapid aging depopulation and response to new technologies Japanese MNEs and companies today are being forced to respond to new business environments never seen in the past The prerequisites for business activities have significantly changed from those of former Japanese companies and their management practices Even in such a difficult situation however many Japanese MNEs and emerging companies have achieved steady growth and have succeeded by changing their business models This book provides the reader with new directions for research and lessons by analyzing the challenges of Japanese multinational enterprises and emerging companies The redirection of attention is expected to have a positive impact on the field of international business study and practice Global Production Networking and Technological Change in East Asia Shahid Yusuf,M. Anjum Altaf,Kaoru Nabeshima,2004-07-01 In the coming decades East Asian economies must face the challenges of an increasingly globalized marketplace This book explores the changing parameters of competition in East Asia and argues that success ultimately will depend on the ability of the region s firms to harness the potential of global production networks and to build their own innovative capability Presenting the latest findings on global production networks and the evolution of technological capabilities it provides researchers students and policymakers with in depth information and analysis on key issues related to growth and development in East Asia East Asian firms must not only achieve greater efficiency but also become more innovative offering differentiated products in order to vie with other first tier suppliers of multinational corporations These firms will also need to develop a technological edge if they are to compete with corporations from the leading OECD countries and form their own global production networks Global Production Networking and Technological Change in East Asia argues that a development strategy linked to technological advance will be necessary to foster the growth of innovative national firms that can remain competitive in global markets Fuelling Economic Growth Michael Graham,Jean Woo,2009 The private sector is playing an increasingly important role in the funding of scientific research As public sector research declines in the countries of the north and the south research and development carried out by the private sector becomes more important for innovations that have economic potential In some cases networks between local firms and multinationals can support learning which leads to economic growth What are the policies which support such partnerships and what are the institutional arrangements that foster research Seven case studies from Argentina China Costa Rica El Salvador Tanzania Peru the Philippines and Vietnam examine how policies have been developed and implemented to encourage innovation

Multinationals and Economic Growth in East Asia Shujiro Urata,Chia Siow Yue,Fukunari Kimura,2006-11-22 This is a comprehensive examination of the role of foreign direct investment in East Asia before and after the financial crisis of mid 1997 Vietnam Economic News ,2009 Vietnam Economic Times ,2005 An Introduction to International Economics Kenneth A. Reinert,2020-08-27 This book is designed for a one semester course in international economics primarily targeting non economics majors and programs in business international relations public policy and development studies It has been written to make international economics accessible to both students and professionals Assuming a minimal background in economics and mathematics the textbook goes beyond the usual trade finance dichotomy to address international trade international production and international finance and takes a practitioner point of view rather than a standard academic one introducing students to the material needed to become effective analysts in international economic policy This new edition features such additional topics as global production and global capital flows migration the Ricardian model and international organizations like the IMF Examples have been updated to include recent developments Brexit for

Sakata,2013-07-12 During the last two decades Vietnam has been undergoing a process of deregulating economic activities and integrating into the global economy The passing of the Enterprise Law in 1999 which facilitated the establishment of private enterprises and the achievement of membership of the World Trade Organization WTO in 2007 were two of the landmark events in Vietnam s rapid growth over this period In order to cope with such a socioeconomic and institutional transformation Vietnam s domestic economic entities have employed various measures including technical upgrading a shift into new areas of business the diversification of capital acquisition the adoption of new models of corporate governance and other measures As a result the reorganization of Vietnam s domestic economic entities such as the equitization of many state owned enterprises the emergence of large scale private enterprises and the revitalization of rural entrepreneurs have taken place in many areas This book attempts to analyze economic activity in Vietnam covering a variety of types and sizes of Vietnam s domestic economic entities from large scale stateowned enterprises to micro scale rural entrepreneurs The Dynamics of Local Learning in Global Value Chains M. Kawakami,T. J. Sturgeon,2011-07-19 This book investigates the process and mechanism of the capability development of East Asian local manufacturers which has underpinned their phenomenal rise in the world s competitive landscape of industrial production during the last few decades
