English teachers should also be encouraged to consider using the Book Language Class (1993/1994). Based on the idea that books in the language classroom are not just tools, but also subjects, the authors present a variety of ways to use books in the classroom. The authors also discuss the importance of the teacher's role in the classroom.

The following is the more complete reference to the Journal of Management Education that appeared in the Journal of Management Education in 1998.
