Le Serment Des Barbares:

Le serment des barbares Boualem Sansal, 2001 Larbi un vieux flic brisé par la mort de sa femme en poste dans une banlieue jadis florissante d'Alger se lance dans une enquête sur la mort d'un va-nu-pieds un ouvrier agricole qui avait suivi ses patrons en métropole après l'indépendance avant de regagner le bled pour y finir ses jours et d'y couvrir ce qu'il ne cherchait pas. De son passé tant il va culbuter sans y prendre garde des nids de serpents faire tomber des masques et des masques derrière les masques. Dans une langue brutale sensuelle puissante et colorée Boualem Sansal se livre une charge virulente contre l'Algérie des islamistes et du FLN coups d'images fortes il fait se déchirer les mythes et les logiques menteuses de l'Algérie contemporaine. C'est une magistrale leçon de passé qu'il nous offre ici , Chewing Over the West , 2009-01-01

The orientation of academic institutions has in recent years been moving away from highly specialized area studies in the classical sense towards broader regional and comparative studies. Cultural studies points to the limitation of Western approaches to non-Western cultures a development not yet reflected in actual research and data collections. Bringing together scholars from all over the world with specialized knowledge in both Western and non-Western languages literatures and cultures this collection of essays provides new insights into the agency of non-Western literatures in relation to the West a term used with critical caution and like other common binary dualisms challenged here. Inter-cultural expertise seldom applied in the combination of Asian African and oriental perspectives makes this compilation of essays an important contribution to the study of colonialism and postcoloniality. Topics covered include postcolonial Arabic writing T.S. Eliot in contemporary Arabic poetry Algerian and Berber literature the English language and narratives in Kenyan art characterization dialogism gender and Western influence in modern Hindi fiction Naya drama in India modern Burmese theatre and literature under Western influence. Remarque's All Quiet on the Western Front and the Vietnamese Novel Without a Name Western Marxism and vernacular literature in colonial Indonesia hybridity in Komedi Stambul and Sherlock Holmes in and the crime fiction of Siam and Indonesia. Contributors Amina Azza Bekkat Thomas de Bruijn Matthew Isaac Cohen Rasheed El Enany Keith Foulcher Saddik M. Gohar Rachel Harrison Doris Jedamski Ursula Lies Daniela Merolla Evan Mwangi Guzel Vladimirovna Strelkova Anna Suvorova U. Win Pe Shifting Genres in Late Antiquity Geoffrey Greatrex, Hugh Elton, 2016-04-01. Shifting Genres in Late Antiquity examines the transformations that took place in a wide range of genres both literary and non-literary in this dynamic period. The Christianisation of the Roman empire and the successor kingdoms had a profound impact on the evolution of Greek and Roman literature and many aspects of this are discussed in this volume: the composition of church history the collection of papal letters heresiology homiletics and apologetic. Contributors discuss authors such as John Chrysostom Ambrose of Milan Cassiodorus Jerome Liberatus of Carthage Victor of Vita and Epiphanius of Salamis as well as the Collectio Avellana. Secular literature too however underwent important changes notably in Constantinople in the sixth century. Several chapters accordingly reassess the work of

Procopius of Caesarea and literature of this period attention is also given to the evolution of the chronicle genre Technical writing such as military manuals and legal texts are the focus of other chapters further genres considered include monody epigraphy and epistolography Changes in visual representation are also considered in chapters devoted to diptychs monuments and coins A common theme that emerges from the chapters is the flexibility and adaptability of genres in the period late antique authors whether orators or historians were not slavish followers of their classical predecessors They were capable of engaging with their models adapting them to their own purposes and producing work that deserves to be considered on its own merits It is necessary to examine their texts and genres closely to grasp what they set out to do on occasion attention must also be paid to the transmission of these texts The volume as a whole represents a significant contribution to the reassessment of late antique culture in general

Silence Is Death Julija Sukys, 2007-01-01 On May 26 1993 the Algerian novelist and poet Tahar Djaout was gunned down in an attack attributed to Islamist extremists An outspoken critic of the extremism roiling his nation Djaout in his death became a powerful symbol for the murder of Algerian culture as scores of journalists writers and scholars were targeted in a swelling wave of violence The author of twelve books of fiction and poetry Djaout was murdered at a critical point in his career just as his literary voice was maturing His death was a great loss not only for Algeria and for Francophone literature but also for world literature Rage at the news of his slaying was explosive but did nothing to quell the increasing bloodshed Silence Is Death considers the life and work of Djaout in light of his murder and his role in the conflict that raged between Islamist terrorist cells and Algeria's military regime in the 1990s The result is an innovative meditation on death authorship and the political role of intellectuals By collapsing the genres of history biography personal memoir fiction and cultural analysis Julija Sukys investigates notions of authorial neutrality as well as the relationship between reader and writer in life and in death Her work offers a view of reading as an encounter across time and place and opens the possibility of a relationship between different cultures under peaceful terms

Contesting the Classroom Erin Twohig, 2019 Contesting the Classroom explores how Algerian and Moroccan novels depict the postcolonial classroom and how postcolonial literature has been taught in Morocco and Algeria It argues that Arabized education has indelibly influenced the development of postcolonial novels which have a deeply fraught yet endlessly creative relationship to the classroom

The Cambridge Companion to the African Novel Abiola Irele, 2009-07-23 An overview of the key novels and novelists of the continent covering multiple cultures and languages Routledge

Handbook of Francophone Africa Tony Chafer, Margaret A. Majumdar, 2023-11-02 The Routledge Handbook of Francophone Africa brings together a multidisciplinary team of international experts to reflect on the history politics societies and cultures of French speaking parts of Africa Consisting of approximately 35% of Africa's territory Francophone Africa is a shifting concept with its roots in French and Belgian colonial rule This handbook develops and problematizes the term with thematic sections covering Colonial and post colonial ties between France and sub Saharan Africa Belgium Belgian colonialism and Africa The Maghreb African Francophones in France Francophone African literature and film Francophone and Anglophone Africa Beyond national boundaries and colonial partners The chapters demonstrate the evolution of Francophone Africa into a multi dimensional construct with both a material and an imagined reality Materially it defines a regional territorial space that coexists with other conceptualisations of African space and borders Conceptually Francophone Africa constitutes a shared linguistic and cultural space within which collective memories are shared not least through their connection to the French imperial imagination Overall the Handbook demonstrates that as global power structures and relations evolve African agency is increasingly assertive in shaping French African relations Bringing this important debate together into a single volume this Handbook will be an essential resource for students and scholars interested in Francophone Africa
