Mission Rift David E. Woolverton, 2021-07-06 There are two types of conflict in congregations conflict that kills and conflict that cultivates growth So argues David E Woolverton in Mission Rift Leading through Church Conflict Conflict that kills that damages or destroys teams ministries missions vibrancy occurs when we as the people of God forget who we are why we re here and where we re going in carrying out the divine mission Conflict that cultivates growth often begins with the same scenarios but leaders see conflict as a context for learning how to live together as a people called to transform their neighborhoods schools and workplaces In Mission Rift Woolverton reorients our view of congregational conflict In part 1 he examines conflict from a theological and ecclesiological framework exploring why it is essential to discipleship and mission In part 2 he presents six principles of missional leadership challenging pastors and other leaders to define themselves within the frameworks of spiritual formation and family systems and then to create environments that facilitate growth in faith communities Rather than resolve conflict too quickly Woolverton explains lest we inadvertently sabotage the potential it has to draw a congregation toward spiritual growth wise leaders recognize that a lack of conflict may be a symptom of missional decline rather than congregational unity When the church pursues its divine mission first conflict may become essential for defining its mission priorities Successfully leading through conflict toward a transformative end will empower a congregation s witness within its community and beyond

Uncharted Leadership Angie Ward, 2023-08-01 Ministry is complicated and every leadership challenge is unique How can you lead effectively when there isn t a clear path forward Real life ministry is complicated far more complicated than is typically captured in leadership books There are moving parts and people who require adept agile adaptive leadership Unlike technical challenges with a clear or known solution adaptive challenges are complex and dynamic requiring creative leaderships Adaptive leadership is art not science It is an exercise in wisdom not just knowledge It requires leaders to ascertain the issues values and stakes unique to a given situation to consider the potential courses of action and decide which courses are best The case study method is a proven and effective tool to help leaders chart their course by learning from complex real life situations Leaders learn to integrate multiple leadership strategies and concepts by reading and reflecting on multiple case studies helping them clarify their own unique context values challenges opportunities and potential actions Like real ministry case studies are complex There is not always an easy solution or even a fast understanding of the real problem s The case studies in Uncharted Leadership promote learning at the deepest level helping leaders move beyond simple answers to deep individual and organizational understanding and transformation Uncharted Leadership applies the case study method to ministry leadership Through a series of relevant real life case studies in ministry leadership Angie Ward brings the classroom to the reader using thought provoking questions commentary and recommended resources to expand the leader's empathy understanding awareness and skill Power and the Powers Andrew R. Hardy, Richard Whitehouse, Dan Yarnell, 2015-10-12 Missio Dei by its very nature requires the church to come to terms with the exercise of power both internally and externally as it confronts the world Tune in to any newscast or glance at the daily newspaper and it immediately becomes clear that the use and abuse of power is a live issue The more we focus on the twists and turns of current events the more it appears that uncorrupted exercise of power eludes the human race All too often we become uneasily aware that there are powers lying behind the power that any of us wields whether it is in the family the classroom on the shop floor in the boardroom or in churches Effective missional leadership involves creative engagement with the powers at work in the world without being debased by them This book sets out to address the issue of the use and misuse of power from biblical theological and practical perspectives The authors bring their theological pastoral missionary and personal experience to their task in order to inform challenge and invite readers into a responsible use of the powers that God has put into the hands of each one of us to achieve his purposes in the world leadership of Jesus with his disciples to whom he declared I no longer call you servants Instead I have called you friends John 15 15 In response to this enduring example of the Divine bringing together both friendship and leadership this book presents an unexplored model of leadership for the Christian practitioner Friendship Leadership The authors of Friendship Leadership share research historical examples and their personal experiences with this leadership model as they describe both the trials and triumphs Through this process the book addresses the primary barriers a leader might experience when utilizing the Friendship Leadership model Finally the authors offer a guide for how to incorporate friendship into their leadership strengthening others as they follow the example of our great Leader The result is a transformational way of leading that nurtures relationships
