Lester Leaps In Douglas H. Daniels, 2003-02-17 He was jazz's first hipster He performed in sunglasses and coined and popularized phrases like that's cool and you dig He always wore a suit and his trademark porkpie hat He influenced everyone from B B King to Stan Getz to

Allen Ginsberg creating a lyrical style of playing that forever changed the sound of the tenor saxophone In this groundbreaking biography of Lester Young 1909 1959 historian Douglas Daniels brings to life the man and his world and corrects a number of misconceptions Even though others have identified Young as a Kansas City musician Daniels traces his roots to the blues of Louisiana and his early years traveling with his father s band and the legendary Oklahoma City Blue Devils Later we see the jazz culture of New York in the early 1940s when Young was launched to national and international fame with the Count Basie Orchestra and began to accompany his close friend Billie Holiday After a year spent in an Army prison on a conviction for marijuana use Young made changes in his music but never lost his sensitivity or soul The first ever to gain access to Young s family and many musicians who performed with him Daniels reconstructs the world in which Young lived and played the racism that he and other black musicians faced the feeling of home and family that they created together on the road and what his music meant to black audiences Young emerges as a kind friend a loving parent and a gentle and sensitive man who had in the words of Reginald Scott the saddest eyes I ever saw LESTER YOUNG RDR Lewis Porter,1991-10-17 This book retrieves long out of print biographical essays and musical studies a few never before published as well as a collection of Young s interviews and a selection of rare photographs The Resurrection of Lady Lester OyamO.,2000 An important play on the great jazz saxophonist Lester Young Lester Young [sound recording] Oscar Peterson,Lester Young,1994 African American musician Lester Willis Young 1909 1959 known as Pres played the tenor saxophone in jazz bands The Public Broadcasting Service PBS presents a biographical sketch of Young as part of Biographies Life and Times of the Great Ones an online supplement to JAZZ a documentary film by American film maker Ken Burns PBS includes audio features with reflections about Young as well as an audio sample of his music The information is courtesy of the New Grove Dictionary of Jazz The Harvard Biographical Dictionary of Music Don Michael Randel,1996 Biographaical dictionary emphasizes classicaland art music also gives ample attention to the classics as well as Jazz Blues rock and pop and hymns and showtunes across the ages Words and Songs of Bessie Smith, Billie Holiday, and Nina Simone Melanie E. cultural memory and African derived cultural expression Pres Luc Delannoy,1993-07 The critic Norman Granz called tenor saxophonist Lester Young the greatest musician I have heard on the instrument Douglas Ramsey speaks of Young as the gentle bedeviled genius whose vision of beauty found expression even though he was hounded throughout his life by nearly every demon the twentieth century had managed to spawn This is his story told with love and candor

Abstractionist Aesthetics Phillip Brian Harper,2015-12-25 An artistic discussion on the critical potential of African American expressive culture In a major reassessment of African American culture Phillip Brian Harper intervenes in the ongoing debate about the proper depiction of black people He advocates for African American aesthetic abstractionism a representational mode whereby an artwork rather than striving for realist verisimilitude vigorously asserts its essentially artificial character Maintaining that realist representation reaffirms the very social facts that it might have been understood to challenge Harper contends that abstractionism shows up the actual constructedness of those facts thereby subjecting them to critical scrutiny and making them amenable to transformation Arguing against the need for positive representations Abstractionist Aesthetics displaces realism as the primary mode of African American representational aesthetics re centers literature as a principal site of African American cultural politics and elevates experimental prose within the domain of African American literature Drawing on examples across a variety of artistic production including the visual work of Fred Wilson and Kara Walker the music of Billie Holiday and Cecil Taylor and the prose and verse writings of Ntozake Shange Alice Walker and John Keene this book poses urgent questions about how racial blackness is made to assume certain social meanings In the process African American aesthetics are upended rendering abstractionism as the most powerful modality
