

Median cover prices, ALL COMICS

How has comics pricing changed over the years? In the top row on this and the following two pages, we list the median price of all American comics cover-dated in any given year, as found in the Standard Catalog of Comic Books. Below, we list the prices that three major publishers, Marvel, DC, and Archie, were charging for their most common, highest-circulation, regular 32-page comics series, whose pricing generally set the basis for most of their line.

Remarkable stability in pricing lasted throughout the 1960s — with several occasions, such as Dell in 1962 and DC in 1971, where publishers briefly got ahead of the field in pricing and backed off.
