Sorry, Wrong Answer Rod L. Evans Ph.D., 2010-06-01 Where were Venetian blinds invented What color is the black box on a commercial airplane Where did India ink originate Most of us know more than we think we know We also think we know more than we actually do because some of what we think we know simply ain't so We all harbor misconceptions that are accepted not only because they are popular but also because they make sense It makes sense to believe for example that German chocolate originated in Germany rather than the truth that German chocolate is so named because it was created by Sam German It seems logical to believe that Mercury is the hottest planet because of its proximity to the sun or that buttermilk contains butter that Danish pastry is from Denmark and that the boat race America's Cup was named after the United States of America In Sorry Wrong Answer Rod Evans takes readers on a tour of misleading trivia debunking commonly held assumptions and sharing surprising right answers Answers Japan Orange China

The Neuroscience of You Chantel Prat, 2022-08-02 From University of Washington professor

Chantel Prat comes The Neuroscience of You a rollicking adventure into the human brain that reveals the surprising truth about neuroscience shifting our focus from what's average to an understanding of how every brain is different exactly why our quirks are important and what this means for each of us With style and wit Chantel Prat takes us on a tour of the meaningful ways that our brains are dissimilar from one another Using real world examples along with take them yourself tests and quizzes she shows you how to identify the strengths and weakness of your own brain while learning what might be going on in the brains of those who are unlike you With sections like Focus Navigate and Connect The Neuroscience of You helps us see how brains that are engineered differently ultimately take diverse paths when it comes time to prioritize information use what they've learned from experience relate to other people and so much more While other scientists focus on how the brain works on average Prat argues that our obsession with commonalities has slowed our progress toward understanding the very things that make each of us unique and interesting Her field leading research employing cutting edge technology reveals the truth Complicated as it may be no two brains are alike And individual differences in brain functioning are as pervasive as they are fundamental to defining what normal looks like Adages such as I'm not wired that way intuitively point to the fact that the brains we're piloting educating and parenting are wonderfully distinct explaining a whole host of phenomena from how easily a person might learn a second language in adulthood to whether someone feels curious or threatened when faced with new information This book invites the reader to understand themselves and others by zooming in so close that we all look gray and squishy
