

My New Life After Moving to America

"It is hard to dream of fantasies and know that they don't exist in reality .But I say it is harder to know that fantasies are real and acknowledge that you are just not a part of them" Unknown .These simples words meant a lot to me ,being Zineb Jaafari meant that I was the young child and that fact put me in a rather restricted situation ,my parents were overprotective they always looked out for me more than my older sister .I spent the majority of my childhood in a hospital with a needle in my veins since I wasn't even supposed to be alive my mother almost lost me a couple of time even when I wasn't even born ,she would always tell me stories and that before me she had a child that she lost and that left her devastated even though she already had my sister she wanted another baby when she found out she was pregnant with me she was not only happy but she was scared as well .Her previous miscarriage had left her with scars not the visible ones but the emotional ones those that leave us broken ,my father was afraid as well but he told me that he prayed a lot around that time .

After 9 painful stressful months I was born on September 23,1997 my mother would often say to me 'that was the happiest day of my life' at those words I would smile and hug her enjoying the feeling of warmth and finding comfort in her loving arms .Growing up with overprotective parents wasn't always a bad thing it had its perks ,my family was definitely one of those families that liked to travel and that's what led me here to where I 'am right now on one summer vacation my sister mother and I decided to travel to America simply for a visit and to discover the American lifestyle , explore the culture and to have fun ,it was one of the best things that I've ever done.
