meanings of age and aging for characters who are in their twenties and thirties and challenges often quoted labels such as late coming of age story or perpetual adolescence

it revolves around the story of an ambitious unmarried woman who defines herself through consumer culture as much as through work or romance Radner argues that these films exemplify neo liberalist values rather than those of feminism As such Neo Feminist Cinema offers a new explanation as to why feminist oriented scholars and audiences who are seeking more than labels and love from their film experience have viewed recent girly films as a betrayal of second wave feminism and why on the other hand such films have proven to be so successful at the box office
